High school girls gird for softball season

He's working with some returnees from last year's squad, which won the Western Six with a 10-0 league record. They include senior infielders Linda Bache and Kathy Purcell, junior outfielders Ann Corbett and Gina Kikka, and junior Sharon Agar, a first baseman. Harrison's main pitcher will be junior Cynthia Pink, a righthander.

"We have no experienced pitching and that's the whole thing with last pitch softball," said Horwitz, who coached some of these girls at East.

"But we think Cynthia will come through. She has good speed. Now we're working on her control."

Overall, Horwitz is optimistic about his team's chances. "I think we're going to be a good-hitting team," he said. "And I'm really impressed with our defense. Our inexperience may hurt us. I may start two or three sophomores."

HARRISON OPENS on April 16 at home against Farmington High. The WSL season starts on April 21 at Walled Lake Western.

Farmington High, which has a new coach in Rick Roy, was the tournament surprise last June.

After posting a mediocre 7-9 record during the regular season, Farmington won a district championship with a victory over Harrison before losing to Redford Union, 12-11, in the regional.

Farmington graduated several talented players from that team, but Roy will have an experienced nucleus.

The team's top pitcher, junior righthander Jean Zuborski, had a 7-4 won-lost record last year. Senior Betsy Vandusen is another pitcher and also can play third base.

Some other Farmington prospects are juniors Sue Carruthers (outfield), Kim Rogers (first base), Denise Goyette (catcher), Cathy Christensen (infield) and Julie Ingalls (infield).

"We're really young with only one senior," said Roy, who coached varsity baseball, basketball and football at Farmington.
