

27 ethnic restaurants participate in festival

Where can you sample the specialties of 27 different Detroit area restaurants in one spring day? At the Fine Foods Ethnic Festival "A Taste of Detroit" May 9-11 at Detroit's Hart Plaza.

The second annual event is sponsored by the Michigan Restaurant Association. The festival opens at noon each day and runs to 11 p.m.

A Taste of Detroit will feature bite-sized servings of the foods that made Detroit's restaurants famous. Tickets for the gourmet nibbles will be priced from 25 cents.

Moms attending the fine foods festival Mother's Day May 11 can sample such diverse fare as shish kabob from Dionysos, J.L. Hudson's Maurice Sland, potato pancakes from Kurz Alt Heidelberg, lime pie from the Woodbridge Tavern, and cherry tarts from Bill Knappos.

Entertainment in the Hart Plaza amphitheater includes Hungarian gypsy music, modern dance, gospel music, children's songs, a puppeteer, Sweet Adelines, Dixieland, big band music and bebop jazz.

Participating in the festival will be Bill Knappos, Brother's Barbeque, Buddy's, Bull Market, Catering, Inc., Charley's Raw Bar, Cro's, Crash Landing, Dionysos, Don's Chuck Wagon, Farm Maid Dairy Grillo Produce, J.L. Hudson Co., Jacoby's, Jim's Garage, JoAnn's, Kingsley Inn (Bloomfield Hills), King John's, Kurz Alt Heidelberg, Lefkofsky Deli, Maudie's Fine Food, The Melling Pot, Nemo's, Porter Street Station, Rembrandt's, Win Schuler's (West Bloomfield and Rochester), and the Woodbridge Tavern.

Fisher slates new comedy

"Dancin'," the last attraction of Fisher Theater season which was open May 27, closed its national tour May 17 and canceled the Detroit engagement.

The summer season is as follows: May 30 through July 13: "Cheaters," a new comedy starring TV actress Peggy Cass, Janis Paige, and Gabe Dell. July 15 through Aug. 17: "A Chorus Line," the award-winning musical returns for the third time to the Fisher.

Shirley Benyas is in the cast of "The World of Sholom Aleichem" at the Studio Theatre in Detroit.

2 area actresses appearing in drama

theater

Two West Bloomfield actresses are appearing in the Wayne State University Studio Theatre production of "The World of Sholom Aleichem" by Arnold Perl.

They are Shirley Benyas, a teacher in the Detroit Public School system, and Emily Schreiber, who is working on a master's degree in theater at Wayne State.

Ms. Benyas is known to Detroit audiences for her involvement in both theater and opera. She recently was seen in "Awake and Sing" at the Studio Theatre and "Fiddler on the Roof" at the Will-O-Way Theatre.

She also has performed with Detroit Opera Theatre and appeared in the opera "The Telephone" at the Bonstelle Theatre.

MS. SCHREIBER has been involved in theater at Oakland University, Center Stage and the Attic Theatre. She was seen last season in "The Sea" at the Studio Theatre.

"The World of Sholom Aleichem" continues at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday-Saturday, with a matinee at 4:30 p.m. Thursday.

Three Yiddish folk stories make up "The World of Sholom Aleichem." Two of the stories, by Sholom Aleichem, recreate the life of the Jewish shtetl, the dilapidated townlet of Eastern European Jewish life.

The production is being presented as a benefit for the Don Blakely Scholarship Fund for undergraduate theater students. For ticket information call the box office in Detroit at 557-2972.

makes the most of your hair

It looks fuller, falls naturally.

Pyrametrics, the new approach to haircutting for men and women, is gaining popularity rapidly, and it's available only at VCG Salons.

The Pyrametrics system isn't a new hairstyle, but it makes any style more attractive and manageable. Each section of your hair is cut to form a base and to support the hair above it. Like laying bricks — if the first course is right the ones above it will follow. The result is hair that looks thick, healthy and natural, hair that requires minimum care.

Wear your hair long or short, curly or straight. With Pyrametrics it's the best look for you. Make an appointment now!
