

Spring cleaning for mom? It's not what you think

Mother's Day is Sunday and, as usual, there are hundreds of special gift ideas in area stores.

But certainly the most unusual idea comes from European facialist Kitty Wagner. She's offering a special Mother's Day gift certificate for "A Spring Cleaning" facial.

If the idea seems appealing but you're not sure about subjecting mother to the unknown, here's a run-down on what the spring facial cleaning is all about.

Mom will be greeted by Mrs. Wagner and escorted back to one of the facial rooms where she will remove her blouse and be enveloped in a draping sheet. She will recline in a facial chair with her feet elevated to ensure increased circulation to the face.

THE FIRST step in the facial routine is a hand, arm and shoulder massage. After a thorough cleansing, the face is massaged with a Vita-Placed camphor to rehydrate the skin — a special beauty treatment formulated for aging and dehydrated complexions. Then a moisture mist is used to open the pores and put moisture back into the skin. A deep-cleaning and buffing with pumice stone and abrasive powder to remove the dead layer of skin follows.

The face is further attended to by Mrs. Wagner, who applies a new spring makeup.

"The new makeup colors are brighter, livelier. We are using lilacs and mauves on the eyes and brighter blush and lipstick colors," Ms. Wagner said.

"A woman can get away with wearing last year's clothes but she needs new makeup colors for an updated look," she said.

Mrs. Wagner said she is aware of the tight money situation and works with her clients to blend new makeup colors into the wardrobe of cosmetics the client already has on hand. "I don't want them to throw everything away," she said.

THE FACIAL expert does not believe in a lot of makeup for daywear. She stresses clean, well-cared for skin with a minimum amount of makeup for the mature woman.

Moisture lotion and Evian water form the foundation for a light application of makeup base, matched to the skin tone and applied in light, downward strokes to avoid clogging the pores of the skin.

Clear, cream rouge is dotted on and blended in just below the cheek bone. Eyes are shadowed lightly and lashes touched with mascara. Lips are outlined with pencil, then gleamed with bright lipstick and softened with gloss. The final touch is a dusting of face powder to eliminate shine in the T-zone — across the forehead, down the nose and over the chin.

AT THE end of the "Spring Cleaning" session, Mrs. Wagner charts a home care program for the client and attempts to use what products the woman may have on hand, provided the care products are appropriate to the woman's skin type.

The "Spring Cleaning" gift certificate is $28. Extended to include a body massage, the certificate is $44. A complete day of beauty which includes all services is $64.

One of the new services offered by Ms. Wagner includes a European pedicure and manicure by Shoshana, whose skills include a three color geometric painting of the nails.

If mom is not too keen on striped nails, she can have soft or transparent color applied. The advantage of the European method of pedicure and manicure is in the softening and callous removal — a must for sunny, sandaled days ahead.

There are two Kitty Wagner facial salons, on Northwestern Highway in Southfield and in the Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi. For more information, call Mrs. Wagner at 353-0707 or 349-4550.
