FOLM softballers win

Lisa Morris pitched a six-hitter last Thursday as Farmington Our Lady of Mercy stopped Detroit Dominican 5-1, in Catholic League softball.

"It was a nice victory for us," said Mercy coach Linda Barber, "because it should get us into the Catholic League playoffs. At 7-3, we're second in the Central Division behind Bishop Gallagher. The best two teams make the playoffs."

Mercy, which had eight hits, scored all five runs in the fifth inning. Lori Macdonald and Carolyn Chapman drew walks, and Michele Kluk singled to load the bases.

Kelly Devers' single drove in one run, and two more came home on Kelley Walsh's single. Patty Maher singled to account for two more runs in the inning.

Earlier last week, Mercy beat Redford Thurston 6-1, in a non-league game. Mercy is 8-6 overall.

Winning pitcher Meri Stockwell went the distance, allowing just two hits, fanning three and walking four. Macdonald and Chapman each had two hits in three trips.

Mercy plays next in the Catholic League playoffs on Wednesday. The opponent has yet to be determined.

FARMINGTON HIGH pushed across a run with two out in the seventh inning to defeat Northville 11-10, in a game which was concluded last Thursday after being halted by rain Tuesday.

In the Farmington seventh, Sue Caruthers singled, stole second, and scored on Stacy Green's single. Green, a sophomore first baseman, had three hits in three trips and drove in three runs.

Winning pitcher Jean Zuhorski worked three innings in relief of starter Betsy VanDeusen. Zuhorski allowed one hit, struck out three and walked one.

Earlier last week, Waterford Township blistered Farmington 8-3, in an Inter Lakes League game. Farmington had five hits. Zuhorski was the losing pitcher.

Farmington plays next on Friday at home against Milford High in a state Class A pre-district game beginning at 4 p.m.

In the Western Six League, Plymouth Canton whipped Farmington Harrison twice, 11-2 and 12-1, last Wednesday.

The losses dropped coach Iv Horowitz' Hawks to 3-13 overall and 1-7 in the league.

In the first game, winning pitcher Marianne Pink gave up four hits and struck out four. Cynthia Pink was the losing pitcher.

Sharon Agar went 2-for-3 for Harrison. Vicky Cavallaro scored three runs for Canton.

In the nightcap, losing pitcher Gina Kluka went all the way, allowing 13 hits, striking out none and walking two. Cindy Sovins, the winning pitcher, worked the first five innings, striking out one and walking one. Cindy Stevens went 4-for-4 for Canton, which climbed to 11-1 overall and 7-0 in the Western Six.

On Monday, May 19, Harrison hosts Waterford Mott at 4 p.m.

In other recent soccer action, Marge Muller and Jane Mao each provided a goal as Northville blanked Farmington High 2-0, in the Western Division.

According to Northville's statistics, Farmington fired 10 shots to the Mustangs' seven. "Most of Harrison's shots were weak ones from way outside," said Northville coach Ron Meteyer.

Northville climbed to 6-2-2 with the victory. Farmington dropped to 2-7-1. Livonia Stevenson goalie Cathy Marchio was required to touch the ball just twice last Monday as her team battered Farmington Harrison, 9-0, in the Western Division.

Amy Lang scored three goals for the winners, and teammates Julie Smith and Loretta Veri each added two. Rosanna Veri and Lisa Cluett each scored one goal.

Stevenson, coached by Noreen Divens, is undefeated in 10 outings this season. Harrison is 1-7-2.

Harrison hosts Livonia Franklin at 4 p.m. on Monday. Farmington travels to Dearborn Fordson on the same afternoon.
