There was a time not too long ago when bowlers who released the ball from the "wong side" of the alleys were considered in the same category as freaks. There were so few of them. Now, much to the surprise of followers of the tenpins sport, these leftlanders have just about taken up most of the top posts in the standings of the leagues and the major tournaments. In the old days, two proprietors more large of the major fournaments. In the old days, two proprietors only one of the control of the defunct Northwestern Recreation — were the only southpaws in the all star leagues.

They complained that they were not given a fair shake because they were forced to bowl on "stiff" alleys all the time. There were no "grooves" on their side.

The Farmington Angels, a recreation women's soccer team, is seeking experienced players over 18 years of age to compete during the upcoming season.

Things are much different now. One of the bowlers now considered among the all time greats is Earl Anthony, who has been a leading figure in the pro ranks for several years. He was the first to win more than $100,000 a year in prize.

Today, the top southpaws are Geri Beattie (Dick's wife) and Aleta Rzepecki, the young newcomer in the all-star leagues. Both rank high in the

So the bowlers who release the ball from the wrong side no longer are con-sidered in the same class as freaks.

DICK BEATTIE wrote a strange chapter in the history of the Michigan Majors Assn. while winning the MM championship last week at Orchard Lanes in Pontiac.

After finishing in 33rd place in the qualifying round, he was moved in to the finals when one of the leaders was disqualified because he failed to list his ball on the score sheet. This is mandatory in the association.

Then given a new life, Dick went on to average 234 and lost only one game in the finals. This gives him the two major titles the Masters, sponsored by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, and the Michigan Majors cham-pionship.

ONE OF THE MOST unusual groups bowling this summer is the childs league at Merri-Bowl. This group is for those between 3 and 6 years of age. They will bowl each Thursday morn-

THE WEST SIDE proprietors put on quite a show in their weekly tournament at Garden Lanes when only nine pins separated the top three bowlers.

John Klimkiewicz showed the way at the finish with a 629. Next in line came Joe Mruk with 619, one pin more than Jerry Oaskaiek and Jim Barker with 611:

THE LARGEST league reported thus far for summer bowling is the Wednesday night group at Westland Bowl. It is comprised of 50 teams, 30 of which are

It is not a mixed group in that they don't bowl each other, but they all bowl at the same time.
