The monopoly that the Detroit and Grand Rapids women shared in state bowling circles appears to have been broken.

In the women's state event now drawing to a close, each city has the lead in only one of the eight divisions. Mary Mohasi has held the lead in all events for the past several months with a count of 1789.

The doubles team of Toni Bylsma and Linda Burdall, of Comstock Park, a suburb of Grand Rapids, is out in front with a 1415 in the handicap division.

This is a far cry from the old days when Marion Ladewig and her Panatium team of Grand Rapids challenged such combinations as Agnes Ekstrom's Gears By Enterprise and later the Alcos teams along with Eddie Coy's Colonial Broach combination.

Even though the Detroit women have only one leader, they completely dominate the actual pinfall in the team event where they hold four of the five top positions.

Penny Behn and the Bonanza Restaurant team are in second place with a 2804 count, 42 pins behind the pacesetter LaFayette Care team of Ferndale.

Right behind Bonanza comes the Motown team of the all-star classic with 2780, Alexander & Thomas Inc. with 2744, and Murdoch Machine Co. with 2721.

In the actual doubles, Jan Pavella and Gerry Ritter are in fourth place with 1154, and tied with Joane Warner and Judith Whalen.

MARCEY GRIFFIN didn't wait long to make her presence felt in the Wednesday afternoon ladies league at Winderland.

To usher in the summer season, she rolled a most unusual 611 series. It was unusual because she started with games of 161 and 171 and wound up with a string of nine strikes for a 279.

Clarenceville wins Metro West crown

Clarenceville High, enjoying an excellent baseball season under coach Mike Shearer, earned the Metro West Conference championship last week by beating Oak Park, 4-3, in the final league game.

The baseball title was the first since 1958 for Clarenceville, which owns a 6-3 league record and an 8-8 overall mark.

Clarenceville scored the winning run in the sixth inning. Joel Brown singled, stole second, and scored on Mike Larson's single to center. Winning pitcher Bob Warren (6-2) went the distance, allowing four hits, striking out nine and walking five.

Each of Clarenceville's nine starters had one hit. Chris Jeffrey knocked in two runs with his hit. Scott Wood, the team's leading batter, boosted his average to .463. Teammate Dale Vaquera pushed his average to .350.

In another recent game, junior left-hander Andy Williams pitched a five-hitter and struck out 14 and walked one as Livonia Franklin dominated Northville, 9-3.

"It's the best he's ever pitched," said Franklin coach Jerry Cullin, whose team owns a 12-6 overall record. "He has a good fastball and he was really moving it around."

Franklin, which had 12 hits, relied on Dave Rettig, who had three hits in three trips and drove in three runs. Bill Clark went 2-for-4 and scored in two runs, and Doug White had two hits.
