CONTINUING SHOWS

Yaw Gallery — Copied Textiles from the 5th through 12th centuries are at the gallery through June 11. There is an interesting history behind these rare framed fabrics. Textiles of this age are extremely rare. These survived because of their role in ritual burial and the dry climate. Hours are Tuesday-Saturday, 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., 550 N. Woodward.

Susanne Hilberry Gallery — Paintings and pastels by Elizabeth Murray will be at the gallery through June 21. Reception to meet the artist 2-6 p.m. Saturday. Hours are 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 555 S. Woodward.

Feigenson-Rosenstein Gallery — Oil paintings by Marianne Stikas will be at the gallery through June 28. Reception to meet the artist, 4-7 p.m. May 30. Gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, Fisher Building, Detroit.

First Federal Savings — The bank's Birmingham branch has a special Michigan Week exhibit of work by Michigan artists through the end of the month. The 44 paintings and graphics are a part of First Federal's large and growing collection of art which is hung in all branches as well as the main office in Detroit. This is the second time that such an extensive collection has been shown in the Birmingham office, 1000 Haynes.

Art Gallery of Windsor — Nine artists from the Windsor and Kingston areas are showing their work at this pleasant museum through June 15. They include Robert Van Der Peer, Milly Christved-Handerek, Alan Dickson, Christopher Broadhurst and Carl Heywood from Kingston, and Adele Duck, Bob Gerrero, Joe De Angelis and Bill Law representing Windsor. Works include painting, sculpture and graphic art. Reception to meet the artists at 3 p.m. Sunday, 415 Riverside Drive West, Windsor, Ontario.

GMB Galerie Internationale — Paintings and other works by James Colgaard will be at the gallery through June 14. The gallery is at 2610 N. Woodward, Royal Oak. For hours, call 549-5970.

Center for Creative Studies — 54th annual student spring exhibition and sale runs through June 1. Hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Closed May 26-29. No admission, free parking on the campus.

Cranbrook Academy of Art Museum — "At Cranbrook: Tony Rosenthal" details sculpture by this New York City artist who just installed a major piece at Cranbrook. Titled "Cranbrook Intergalactic," it is the artist's first large work in a natural setting. The museum exhibit includes seven maquettes and photographs of various Rosenthal works in their urban environment. Catalog and poster are available. The museum is open 1-5 p.m. daily except Monday and major holidays. Admission is $1.50, 500 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Maccelli Studio Gallery — Works in clay by Thelma Abel will be on display at the gallery through June 5. Ms. Abel, painter as well as sculptor, approaches clay as a commensurate artist giving it painterly qualities and provocative design. 511 Beaubien, Detroit. For hours, call 862-4780.

W.F. Malloy Galleries — "Two from California" features Lee and Robert McKeown. Lee McKeown works with thrown clay forms, deeply carved or delicately etched. The glazing process sets her apart from the usual ceramicist. Her works are in permanent gallery collections as well as private ones. Robert McKeown fabricates boxes of fine woods and cast-resin ornamentation. His work has been in several Yamaha Corp. exhibitions which have traveled throughout Japan. This show marks the gallery's ninth anniversary, second in the Birmingham area; 1025 Haynes.

Allen Rubiner Gallery — Recent paintings by Pat Mayhew of Birmingham will be at the gallery through June 13. This well-respected local artist has changed and refined her approach since her last one-woman show. These are acrylics on canvas, scenes from nature. Gallery hours are 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Mondays-Fridays, 621 S. Washington, Royal Oak.

Troy Art Gallery — Sculpture Scenario is an exhibition of indoor and outdoor sculpture by the members of the Birmingham Sculptors Guild. This is the state's largest group of professional sculptors. Most of the pieces will be in glass, wood, alabaster, bronze and hydrostone. Hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 755 W. Big Beaver at I-75 in the Top of Troy course.

Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association — Second student show includes works in watercolor, fibers, ceramics, calligraphy, sumi-e painting, design and print making techniques. Joy Emery, director of the Detroit Artists Market, was the prize juror. Gallery hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 1516 S. Cranbrook, just north of 14 Mile.

Habitat Galleries — Realistic still life work by Jan Miller of Evergreen Park, Ill., are at the gallery through May 31. These acrylics on canvas show the unusual potential of ordinary object groupings. The gallery is at 28335 Southfield, Latspur Village. Call 592-0515, for hours.
