

Art smart

Students at the Farmington Community Center's art classes are preparing to show off their art on June 9-20 in the center's building. The student art show and sale, planned as the first in a series of annual events, will feature work by students and teachers from the center on Farmington Road north of 10 Mile. Looking over their macramé wall hangings (left) are Sherry Catallo (seated) and Helen Liljegren. Paintings, of course, are included in the show. Some of the artists showing framed works (right) are (from left) Marjorie Chellstorp, Marilyn Thayer and Sally Alexander. A reception for all of the participants, their families and friends is scheduled for 1-3 p.m. June 14 in the center.

Sue Young (right), one of the artists in the co-op studio in Southfield, open to Oakland County residents, did the life-size ceramic madonna, pictured, in five parts. It was commissioned by Mrs. Clorinda Bonucchi in memory of her son, Dario. The piece is now in Madonna Church in Detroit. Dario Bonucchi was active in Focus: Hope, which is based at Madonna Church and Mrs. Bonucchi wanted this type of tribute for him. Ms. Young is a member of the art faculty of Our Lady of Mercy High School in Farmington and shows her work frequently in the metropolitan area. (Drawing by Debbie Stewart)
