Area students traveling abroad

The Greater Detroit Chapter of Children's International Summer Villages will host a village at the Sacred Heart Academy of Bloomfield Hills during July. At the same time several local 11-year-olds will travel to villages and exchange programs in France, Italy, Guatemala City and Philadelphia.

Barbara Wilson of Birmingham is among four delegates selected to go to the French Village. Fattie Robinson of West Bloomfield and Mitch Burt of Bloomfield Hills have been chosen for the Italian Village.

In addition, students in the 13- to 15-year-old age group participate in the Children's International Summer Village Interchange program when they host or visit a teen-ager in another country, which is a two-year program for successive years. Local students entertaining Swedish students they visited a year ago include John Evelev and Meghan Widge of Farmington Hills, Dan Margolis and Dan Margolis of Bloomfield Hills. Kim LoPrete of Birmingham is their leader.

Other teens completing the second half of an interchange will travel to Helsinki, Finland, and Guatemala City. Finland is the destination for Walter Stroud Jr. of Southfield. Area teens going to Guatemala City are Cindy Slater of Birmingham, Natalie Stroud of Southfield, and Jeff Scannel of Livonia.

Still other students traveling to Stockholm and Florence include Andrea Laudau of Birmingham and Leah McCullough of Southfield, who are going to Stockholm. Those going to Italy include Debbie Dixon of Farmington Hills, Ellen Feashey, Mary Margolis and Steve Savoy of Bloomfield Hills, and Ted Arnstein of Birmingham.

Completing the group group are participants in a relatively new CISV program, which will include six young-sters and their leader, who will exchange two-week visits with member families of the Philadelphia chapter. Among this group are Theron Richardson and Olive Davis of Walled Lake, Eric Anderson of Franklin, and Doug McCullough of Southfield.

For more information about the CISV program, contact Nancy Montgomery, 863-1037.
