Hallmark scholarship given Hills resident

Philip Roselli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Roselli, Farmington Hills, has been awarded a scholarship by the Hallmark Educational Foundation. He is a 1980 graduate of North Farmington High School. He plans to major in premedicine at the University of Michigan.

Hallmark Educational Foundation scholarships ranging up to $1,500 annually were awarded to 27 students this year. The winners were selected from among 197 applicants recommended by employees of Hallmark Cards, Inc. To be eligible a student must be sponsored by a Hallmark employee.

State Police head retires

Michigan State Police Capt. Walter W. Anderson, commander of district headquarters at Northville, will retire Friday, ending a 28-year career with the state police force. Anderson, 52, has been at Northville since 1976 when the new headquarters for the state police's second district opened. He joined the state police in 1952 and was assigned to Flint. He was transferred to Houghton Lake in 1963 and in 1967 was reassigned to the detective division in Detroit. He became second district commander in 1974.
