

Meadow Brook announces contemporary series

Martin Mull will bring his songs and comedy July 23.

Blood, Sweat and Tears with David Clayton Thomas kicks off Meadow Brook Music Festival's new contemporary series July 15.

Three other popular attractions are included in this new four-concert series. Comedian Martin Mull will appear July 23, singer Rita Coolidge will perform Aug. 12, and Stephen Stills, will close the series Aug. 19.

The festival runs June 26 through Aug. 31. Besides the new contemporary series, the festival includes a Thursday/Saturday symphonic series, Friday variety series, Sunday pops, children's concerts and other concerts spotlighting popular entertainers.

Concerts are held in the Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus near Rochester, with entrances on Walton Boulevard and Adams Road. More than 7,000 people can be seated in the pavilion and on the lawn.

concerts

Contemporary series concerts begin at 8:30 p.m., with the grounds opening at 6 p.m. for picnicking or dining at Trumbull Terrace.

Information on season subscriptions and a brochure can be obtained by calling the Meadow Brook box office at 377-2010.

Radio City band plays ski lodge

The Detroit-area band Radio City will perform June 28-July 1 at Pine Knob Ski Lodge in Clarkston, not at the Pine Knob Music Theatre, as an article in the June 5 issue stated.

WC3 starts eastern center

Wayne County Community College officials will break ground Friday for its eastern regional center at I-94 and Conner Street in Detroit.

The eastern center will be the last of five permanent buildings for the nearly county-wide community college. In its early years, the college leased office and classroom space throughout the county.

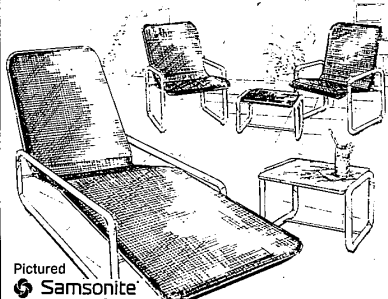

Rita Coolidge sings Aug. 12 at Meadow Brook Music Festival.
