2 area girls earn honors

"It'll be interesting to see the reaction to this new policy," Snede said. "I'll bet the people will like it, because it means that more girls can be on the team."

Snede was among several area coaches who gathered recently to pick the O & E's 1980 All-Area girls' track team. For the most part, the team reflected strong seasons at Avondale, Troy Athens and Rochester.

KORI GIFFORD, Bloomfield Hills Andover's senior superstar, was an easy choice for the all-area team. She was picked in the 220-yard dash because her best time of 24.5 seconds, recorded in the Class A finals, tied a state record. She won two other events at the state meet.

The other two sprint events, the 100 and the 440, went to Troy Athens' Molly Acton and Avondale's Sandi Rohe, respectively.

Two seniors, Farmington Harrison's Beth Dilley and West Bloomfield's Monique Ozimkowski, captured top honors in the hurdles events.

Dilley, who is headed for Grand Valley State College, finished fifth in the 220-yard hurdles at the Class B state meet with a time of 29.2. Ozimkowski, who has made the all-area team for the past four years, finished third in the 110-yard hurdles at the Class A state meet with a time of 14.3.

Rochester has a strong tradition in the distance events — the mile and the two mile — and it showed in the first-team selections for those events.

Rochester's Aimee Landry, a junior, was the area's top miler with a 5:17.4, which won the Class A regional meet. Teammate Karen Curtis, who has accepted a scholarship to the University of Hawaii, was voted best in the two mile with an 11:29.0 recorded in a dual meet against Rochester Adams.

SENIOR KATHI Harris of Walled Lake Central topped the hopefuls in the 880-yard run. Her best time of 2:18.1 was logged in the Class A state meet. She finished fifth.

Farmington Our Lady of Mercy's Beth Bosse, a senior, was the top pick in the discus event with a best throw of 109 feet, 8 inches, good for second place in the regional meet. She finished 11th at state.

"Bosse puts on a clinic every time she throws," said an area coach. Debbie Ross, Troy High senior, was tops in the shot put. Her best toss of 34-6 1/2 was No. 1 on the paper's best girls' performances for most of the season. She finished second in the Oakland A League meet.
