

Degrees awarded by Mercy College

Fourteen Farmington area residents recently received their degrees at Mercy College of Detroit's 38th annual commencement.

Those who graduated with honors were Lisa Ferla of Farmington and Richard Morse and Elizabeth Spreen of Farmington Hills.

Ms. Ferla obtained a bachelor of science degree in nursing and is now employed as a staff nurse at Providence Hospital in Southfield.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ferla.

Mr. Morse earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration. He is the husband of Kathleen Morse. Ms. Spreen, daughter of Oakland County Sheriff Johannes Spreen, was awarded a bachelor of science degree in environmental analysis.

Other Farmington graduates included: Adrienne Clemence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clemence, bachelor of science in nursing; Nancy Dahlgren, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Dahlgren, bachelor of science with a double major in food service management and business administration.

Also from Farmington are: Melinda Flott, daughter of Mrs. Nancy Flott, bachelor of arts in history; and Brenda Fitzsimons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzsimons, bachelor of science in medical technology.

Those from Farmington Hills are: Robert Burkart, husband of Susan Burkart, bachelor of arts in law enforcement; Susan Dahlia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sham Dahlia, bachelor of science in nursing; Catherine Doll, wife of Audrey Doll, bachelor of science in nursing; Cynthia Hurick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hurick, bachelor of science in nursing of 1949.

Also from Farmington Hills are: Diane Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Nolan, bachelor of science in general science; Louise Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stewart, associate of science in dietetics; and Timothy Swanson, husband of Colleen Swanson, associate of arts in law enforcement.

Student awarded memorial prize

Catherine Bennett, an Albion College graduate, has received this year's Marjorie Rogers Dick Memorial Award for music majors.

The prize is awarded annually by vote of the music faculty to a voice major based on accomplishment, contribution to the department and character.

The endowment for the prize was
