

Froelich Leaves OCC

BLOOMFIELD HILLS Robert Froelich, director of instructional systems for Oakland Community College, has resigned to accept a position as vice president for business at Central College, Pella, Iowa.

Froelich was released from his contract by the OCC Board of Trustees to enable him to assume his Central College post on March 11.

One of the early members of the OCC staff, Froelich, 44, was appointed business manager of the Auburn Hills and Highland Lakes Campuses in 1965.

Previously he had served as assistant to the president of Schoolcraft College, assistant to the director of Toledo (O) Museum of Art and industrial relations supervisor, automotive assembly division, Ford Motor Co.

Froelich is a member of the Northville School District Board of Trustees and is a former member of the Laramie County (W) Board of Trustees.

RECIPIENTS -- Brothers Robert (left) and John Williams (right) receive $250 scholarships to attend Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus in Farmington. Making the presentation is donor Paul Williams, former member of the Temptations singing group. The students are the sons of former Republic of New Africa leader Robert F. Williams, graduated from high school in Peking and recently returned from Cuba.

County Park Opens For Snowmobiles

Addison - Oaks, the newest County Parks and Recreation Department, is now open for snowmobiling.

The park consists of 700 acres and is located about seven miles north of Rochester, at 1480 Romeo, in Addison Township. A warming house and refreshment stand will be open.

Art Shows Now Open

County residents will be charged $2.50 per machine per day and non-residents will be charged $3.50 per day per machine, according to the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Department.

Two special art exhibitions are currently on display through Jan. 31 in The Galeria, the campus fine arts gallery of the Orchard Lake Schools.

Hours of The Galeria, which is housed at the center-front of the 110-acre campus in Orchard Lake, are noon to 8:30 p.m. on weekdays and from noon to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Illustrates important trends in painting during the last hundred years.

A selection of paintings chosen from the 25th annual Michigan Artists Watercolor Show has just finished an exhibition in Detroit's Scarab Club Gallery. More than 50 paintings from this exhibit are displayed in The Galeria.

"BACKGROUNDS in Modern Painting" is a series of 12 reproductions of paintings which is on tour from the National Gallery. This exhibit il-
