Carolyn Tolley is 1st runner-up

Carolyn Tolley, a 23-year-old resident of Farmington Hills, was named first runner-up in the Miss Michigan United Beauty Pageant held in Center Stage, Canton Township.

She was edged out of the title spot by winner Renee Seelye of Mt. Clemens in the pageant that attracted 94 contestants from throughout the state.

The brunette beauty who weighs 108 pounds and stands 5 feet, 6 inches, designed and made the silver lame gown which she wore in the contest.

She is employed by American Motors and was sponsored by Leonard Chester Photos.

As first runner-up, Miss Tolley will receive a $900 John Robert Powers Modeling School scholarship, a weekend trip to Toronto, a trophy, a free year's pass to Wayne Amusement Theater, and an invitation to tour on the Ford Motor Co. auto show circuit.

Contestants were judged on beauty of face and figure, charm, poise, personality and intelligence.

THE MISS Michigan United Beauty Pageant is a beauty contest for young women between 17-28 years of age who are interested in modeling and show business careers.

Contestants are feted with a round of parties prior to the pageant given by pageant sponsors who are in a position to open career doors.

Cynthia Guenther, a former title winner, has been the executive director of the pageant in Michigan since 1976. She was seen on WWJ-TV for two years as hostess for the Michigan State Lottery "Michigan" and now travels extensively throughout the U.S. as a model and narrator for Ford Motor Co.

Jim Ryan, assistant program and music director for WDRQ and afternoon disc jockey served as master of ceremonies when Mary Morton, from Farmington, gave up her crown and title she held for the 1979-80 year.

Ms. Morton is now affiliated with Wilhemina, a prestigious modeling agency in New York.

The pageant's 14 judges were members of the entertainment, sports and media worlds.
