Traffic signals will be installed at the intersection of Ten Mile and Grand River in Farmington Hills, according to the Oakland County Road Commis-sion.

You'll see them at Livonia Mall, the Farmington Founders Festival and elsewhere throughout the summer. They're high school students from the surrounding area who'll be bringing their particular brand of theater to.

Back for their second summer are Ed Bastien, Denise Crossley and Meloyer Hoyer. First-year students are Jim Keith, Kathy Trestain, Karen McCol-loch, Char Paris, Scott DeAngelo, Ray Stewert, Cindy Tragge, Dave Brandon, Tom Smith, Lisa Akey, Jeff Vadnais and Cherie Stangts.

The signals will allow westbound traffic on Grand River to proceed constantly, which is the reason for banning left turns noto Grand River at this location. Impeding westbound through traffic would only worsen an already-difficult capacity problem, he said. The signals will regulate all other movements through the intersection: left turns not 'Ten Mile from Grand River, right turns from Ten Mile onto Grand River and eastbound through traffic on Grand River.
