

Guests of honor

Women who have served as presidents for Farmington Neighbors Club wore corsages to designate them as guests of honor when the club celebrated its 25 years of extending friendship at a silver anniversary tea. Jewel Bailey (seated) presides over the tea service for

Hamilton-Kansman

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton of Linden announce the engagement of their daughter Minnie Sue to Rein Steven Kansman son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kansman of Farmington. The bride-to-be and her fiancé are both graduates of Michigan State University. An August wedding is planned.

Johnson-Deskins

Rebecca Sue Deskins and Rex W. Johnson were married in Beverly Hills Baptist Church, Huntington, W. Va. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deskins of Waverly, O., and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Richard Johnson of Farmington Hills. The newlyweds are both graduates of Marshall University, in Huntington, where she is now doing graduate work in speech therapy. The groom, a graduate of North Farmington High School, is employed with Appliance Buyers Credit Corp. in Chesapeake, O. They will make their home in Huntington.

Table tennis tournament registration is open

Registration is now open for persons over the age of 13 to enter a One-Star Open Table Tennis Tournament, sponsored by Farmington Area YMCA and Manufacturers Bank on Saturday, July 19.

The sponsors have scheduled 17 events for males and females in different age categories for the play that will run from 9-11 a.m. in the Y, 28100 Farmington Road.

The tournament will be a part of Farmington Founders Festival activities and offers prizes totaling more than $500 in both cash and trophies.

Louis Budi, a United States Table Tennis Association (USTTA) member and a resident of Farmington, will be tournament director.

"He has been working hard to get the tournament sanctioned by USTTA," said Dave Seefeld, program director for the Y. "He contacted Manufacturers National Bank here and was able to get its support with a contribution to the tournament."

Seefeld has been handling the arrangements from the Y's side. "We've rented 14 Detroit tables to fill the gymnasium in order to host the tournament," he said. "The Y will also be providing locker room facilities to the tournament participants."

Registration blanks are now available in the Y. Seefeld will take inquiries by calling him at 553-4020.

Tootsie Roll sales aid retarded

Farmington area residents who bought Tootsie Rolls from members of St. Francis Council Knights of Columbus donated a total of $7,000 to aid the area's retarded citizens.

Money gifts from the St. Francis Council were given to St. Clare Parish's

Special Religious Education Program; Greater Farmington Association for Retarded Citizens; Farmington Training Center; Fair Haven Summer Camp for the Retarded; Northwest Community Association for Retarded Citizens; and Our Lady of Providence School for the Retarded.
