

'Side by Side' opens season

Following several days of previews for the first attraction of the second season, the Birmingham Theatre opened its pre-Broadway run of "Side by Side by Sondheim" starring Peggy Lee.

This production of "Side by Side by Sondheim" is directed by

Norman Twain, co-directed by Teri Halston. The musical revue features favorites from such Sondheim shows as "Gypsy," "Company," "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "A Little Night Music," "Follies," "Anyone Can Whistle," "Sweeney Todd," "Do I Hear a Waltz?" and "Pacific Overtures."

Theatergoers turn out for the opening night of vocalist Peggy Lee starring in the musical revue "Side by Side by Sondheim" at the Birmingham Theatre. The show runs through July 20.

Tracey and Maria Galan of St. Clair Shores relax in Birmingham Theatre's elegant lobby before start of the show.
