

Fireworks combine with pavilion shows

Kingston Trio fans can expect to hear "MTA" and "Tom Dooley," plus new, easy-listening harmonies, when the trio appears at 8:30 p.m. Friday at Meadow Brook Music Festival on the Oakland University campus near Rochester.

Mary Travers, who became famous singing with Peter, Paul and Mary, creates her own contemporary sound on the same program. Fireworks follow the concert.

Internationally acclaimed pianist Flavio Varani will perform the premiere of Stanley Hollingsworth's Piano Concerto, with Neville Martinier conducting the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. Varani and Hollingsworth are faculty members at Oakland University.

Mendelssohn's "Scotch Symphony" and Handel's "Royal Fireworks Music" are the other two works to be performed. Fireworks end the evening.

Leonard B. Smith leads the Detroit Concert Band in "Stars and Stripes Forever" and other John Philip Sousa marches at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in a salute to America's birthday. A fireworks display will light up the Meadow Brook sky following the concert.

THE GROUNDS are open two and a half hours before evening concerts for picnicking or dining at Trumbull Terrace.

For tickets, dinner reservations or program information call the festival box office, 377-2010. Tickets also are available at Hudson's and other convenient Ticket Company locations.
