One of the fondest memories the young Scotch and Swedish soccer players who were in Livonia for the Wolverine tournament over the past weekend, was their confronation with bowling — American style.

American style.

American style.

The style of the vision of the visions of the second of the visions of the worderlock. Johorn, of Swedeen, who admitted he was amazed at the number of establishments in the area and again by the number of people on the lanes.

"Over home," he said, "we have only three establishments for a community of 200,000 persons. I have no idea of how many we would have if the American plan of an establishment for every so many people was followed.

During their stay, they visited Woodland Lanes and while no secrets were kept — officially — the young soccer players had a great time.

One other point the young Swede made was the fact that bowling in his country is much costlier than in Ameri-ca — but he couldn't reveal what the exact cost would be in American cur-troiter, rolled the most dramatic series in the annals of the American Bowling Congress.

It happened in Detroit's first ABC

It happened in Detroit's first ABC tournament away back in 1910. After rolling 617 in the team event and 639 in the doubles he opened his singles with a 236. When he followed with 268 it was apparent that the first 700 series in ABC history was about to be rolled.

700 series in ABC history was about to be rolled. He started the last game with a double and a spare. Bowling on all other lanes stopped and the excitement became so great that the fence behind the bowlers was broken down and all hand submered behind flades proved his undoing for in the eighth frame he left up to be 10-ju in or a solid hit and then missed the spare. At that point, he refused to continue until the crowd moved back. With all the excitement he managed to post a 201 game and a 705 series the first ever rolled in the ABC and it was the first time that a series was held up in championship play because of the

Incidentally, the 705 also gave him the all-events title with a 1951—a record at that time.

ANOTHER ODDITY. According to the ABC records, Richard Caplette of Danielson, Conn, holds the distinction of rolling 19 consecutibe gutter balls. It happened during league play in 1971 and it still stand. CAR POOLS. While the all-star leagues will not begin play until late August, many of the leagues afready are planning car pools in an effort to conserve gasoline. This is especially true of the Tuesday league that bowls at Thunderbowl in Allen Park and the Thursday League that rolls at Orchard Lames in Pootlac:
