

Celebrating July 4th

How residents look upon patriotic holiday

George M. Cohen sang he was proud to be a "real live nephew of my Uncle Sam, born on the Fourth of July."

Some of that spirit lives on in the hearts of Farmington area residents and workers, but for others, the Fourth of July heralds a long weekend and little else.

"It's the hottest month of the year and the most glorious day of the year," said Joseph Quinlan of Farmington.

While bemoaning that younger persons don't revere the day as they should, he added that "the older generation is more respectful and reverent toward it."

"Today they need the Fourth of July more than ever," echoed Gladys Boring of Northville who works in Farmington.

"We need something to pick up our spirits in this crazy world," she said.

Others see the observance as an opportunity to renew a feeling of patriotism.

"It's taken on meaning because of all the problems," said Rick DeForge of Farmington.

"With what's going on with the hostages," interjected Laura Erickson of Farmington.

"IT'S a day of independence. I'm happy to be where I am," said Mary Trakian of Farmington.

Others see the day as the beginning of a mid-summer holiday.

"It's a long weekend," said Mike Foley of Livonia.

WHERE YOU SAVE IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER TODAY.

These days, there are more savings options than ever before. But not all of them guarantee their rates for any length of time. So you can wind up with high interest today. But tomorrow may tell quite a different story.

We guarantee your interest at First Federal.

All First Federal certificate interest rates are guaranteed to remain at a high level throughout a set period of time, no matter what the money market does.

Equally important, savings accounts at First Federal are insured to $100,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. And with multiple ownership of accounts, it's possible to provide insurance coverage for a whole lot more. We'll gladly show you how.

Your money—and our people—are working close to you.

When you save at First Federal, your money remains conveniently nearby. So if you suddenly need to use it, you can quickly and easily make a withdrawal at any of our more than 50 branch offices.

When ever you need information or assistance, we have people standing by in your neighborhood to help you.

All savings places aren't created equal.

Some of today's new savings plans make good sense for some people. However, we feel ours are unique in combining high interest and the security most savers desire.

So the choice is yours. You can take the risk of earning other kinds of high interest. Or you can relax with the confidence that you're collecting ours.

*Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal from all certificate savings accounts.
The effective annual yield is subject to change at renewal and assumes that the interest rate remains unchanged and that both the principal and the interest your certificate earns are reinvested. The compounding of interest during the term of our 182-Day Money Market account is prohibited.
Interest is compounded continuously.
