Sport-a-Thon raises funds to aid diabetics

Sport-A-Thon 1980, a summer time fund-raiser for the American Diabetes Association of Michigan (ADA-M), will take place Saturday, Aug. 2 in several partially developed subdivisions in Farmington Hills. All locations have been selected to ensure complete freedom from auto traffic.

Persons of all ages are invited to take part in the walking, jogging, or biking events. Free soft drinks are available to the participants.

Participants must obtain sponsor sheets and enlist sponsors to pledge money for each mile that is walked, jogged or ridden. Sponsor sheets may be obtained by calling ADA-M at 342-9333.

Money raised will help support programs and services for children and adults with diabetes. These include a summer camp for diabetic youngsters, Camp Midichia, statewide free testing for diabetes, counseling and support of research to find a cure for the malady.

A 10-speed bike will be awarded to the top fund-raiser. Other prizes will be announced at the event.

ADA-M headquarters is located at 6131 West Outer Drive, Detroit.

Center plans special events for Founders Festival days

Farmington Community Center sponsors a series of activities to celebrate Founders Festival beginning with participation in "Kid's Day," July 22.

"Kid's Day" is the first of what the Founders Festival committee expects to become an annual affair, with a variety of fun and games scheduled for all area youth that begins at 9:30 a.m. in Farmington City Park on Shiawassee and Powers Road.

"When dinner time rolls around our grounds will be ready for picnicking," said Sharon Zamezky, public relations director for the center. "We hope families with picnic baskets in hand will come over to watch performances by members of Family Players in our outdoor amphitheater."

Show time is 6 p.m. when the players take the stage to present excerpts from several of their latest productions. The group is directed by Sally Sawyer, who founded the unique company made up of families in Detroit's northwest suburbs.

There is no charge for the performance.

THE CENTER will operate a booth in Downtown Farmington Center July 23-27.

On display will be "Tried and True," the cookbook that was published as a fund-raiser for the center which is now in its second printing.

For the asking will be tickets to be cashed in at the center, in return for free lemonade during the center's open house days, July 24-26.

Guests are invited to tour the house and grounds and view displays depicting news of what's coming to the center, and talk with a variety of craftsmen who will be demonstrating the various crafts they teach in the center.

"Dancing Under the Stars" begins at 8 p.m. July 25 on the center grounds with the big band sound of Prox, a 16-piece dance band.

Admission for dancing is $3 for adults or $2 for students at the door. Beer, wine and refreshments will be available for sale.

The center is located at 24705 Farmington Road, north of Ten Mile Road.
