

2 from Troop 389 earn Eagle rank

Troop 389 held its Court of Honor this month, highlighted by two of its members who have attained the Eagle rank, Boy Scouting's highest achievement.

The area's new Eagle scouts are Matthew D. Cashin, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cashin, 21900 Leyte, Farmington Hills, and Mark P. Kubat, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kubat, 21922 Ontaga, Farmington Hills.

The troop is led by Scoutmaster Paul Harvey and sponsored by Nardin Park United Methodist Church.

Both of the scouts are in the Order of the Arrow, on the honor rolls at their schools and have won awards for hiking Historic Trails, Potawatomi Trail and Wright Memorial Trail.

Both scouts enter their junior year of high school this fall, Cashin at Catholic Central and Kubat at Harrison.

CASHIN HAS served as both patrol leader and swim instructor for his troop. He was on the all-area swim team this year and took first place in a competitive state swim in 1979.

He is holder of the Gabriel Richard Award and is a member of Michigan Stingray Swim Club and his school's marching band.

His hobby is magic and his sights are set on a career in aeronautical engineering.

Kubat has served as patrol leader and senior patrol leader for his troop while simultaneously playing in Harrison's Marching and Symphony Bands and working as a cook for Hero's Beef Buffet.

His hobby is model building and he hopes for a career in mechanical drafting and engineering.
