SPEEDY MICHAEL Reese extended Pinchoff to three sets in the round of eight before losing, 6.7, 6.1, 6.4. Pinchoff then beat the surprise of the tournament, unseeded Paul Walker of Almont, a No. 3 singles player for Western Michigan, 75, 6.7, 6.3. Nagel, the No. 3 seed, outlasted former Michigan State netter Tighe Keating of Birmingham in the quarterfinals, 6.2, 6.2.

Hal Jolley of Rochester, the No. 4 seed, was ousted in the quarterfinals by Walker, 6-4, 6-4. Plymouth's Curt Schultz won two qualifying matches to gain a spot in the main draw. Jolley eliminated Schultz — who will attend Western Michigan his fall = 6-3, 6-2. Caraham Snook 6-2. Garaham Snook 5-6. Canton, the 1977 champ, was besten by Reese in the round of 16, 6-4, 6-4. The doibles crown wint to John Hainline of Grosse Poidle, a former University of Michigan netter; and Mike Ware of Ann Arbor. They detect a pair of Johicans, John Defect and Julius Smetona, 8-2, 7-3.

"The bowling game isn't what it used to be, and now with the Stroh team out of big-time competition the glory days of team matches will be just a memory."

These were the words of Bob Hitt, a Livonia milkman, who is a veteran of the all-star leagues and who at one time was considered one of the better bowlers in the area.

He was referring to the days when match games involved teams instead of individuals. Such teams were in their hey-day. Stroh. Bob Thyne's Paris Cleaners, captained by Johnny Crimmins; E&B and Pfeiffers, captained by Louie Burr, Pepsi Cola, captained by Louie Burr, Pepsi Cola, captained by George Bryant; and the Krakow Furniture team, captained by Herb Mertens; along with Hank Ehrle's Coca Cola combination.

The matches among these teams arew. capacity crowds and there never again may be a rivalry to match the days of Joe N--- met.

Hitt still bowls, but limits his competition to one night a week in the Wonderland Classic.

BILLY GOLEMBIEWSKI, one of the veterans of the all-star leagues, moved to center stage in the Trio League at Bel-Aire Monday night. He put together games of 209, 256, 275 and 176 for a 916 to pace the ontire circuit.

256, 275 and 176 for a 916 to pace the entire circuit. At this figure, he was 41 pirs ahead of Ken Kossick, who had an 875. Dan Feroni was third with 848. In the Monday night men's fun league, Paul Koenig opened with a 234 apd finished with a 646 series to beat'out Larry Franz by 10 pins.

CYNDI EDWARDS, the little left-hander who is nearing stardom at Westland Bowl, showed the way in the Ladies Classic with a 224 in 595.

Next to her came Judy Whalen with a 577, and Sue Kollar had a 237 for high game.

In the Monday men's league, Joe Kupras was high with 245 in a 621 series while Bob Trusky set the pace with 626 that included a 236 game. Meanwhile, Mike Maurice earned some of the spotlight with a 154 tri-

MIKE GARLAND swept through four matches in the final round to take top place in the monthly sweepstakes at Super Bowl. In the closing game, he defeateed Mark Hall, 205 to 195, with Paul Horie winding up in third place.

MONTE ONCZA, promoter of the Little Caesar Classic at Westland Bowl, is confronted with an unusual situation.

As he prepares for the coming season, he has more teams than he needs to fill the spots.

"I expect a couple of them to cancel," he said. "They usually do at the last minute. But it is a nice feeling to know that you will have a full league in these times."
