

INSIDE ANGLES

BY LOUISE OKRUTSKY

A BIG ANGLES salute to Lois Vagnozzi of Farmington Hills in recognition of winning four awards from the United Teachers Press Association. Ms. Vagnozzi is the editor of the "Detroit Teacher," the newspaper of the Detroit Federation of Teachers. The "Detroit Teacher" was recognized for general excellence and picked up top awards in three other categories. Federation of Teachers president Albert Shanker presented the awards. Here's to you, Ms. Vagnozzi, (think of them as empty sheets of paper in the typewriter.)

TAKING THE BITE out of buying a musical instrument is the goal of the Novi Foundation for the Performing Arts' annual used musical instrument sale. The used instruments will be on sale from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sept. 6 in Novi High School, 10 Mile and Taft. The Novi Band Boosters will conduct their annual rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. the same day in the high school. There are no fees charged for the used musical instrument fair but sellers are asked to set their own fees and remain with their instruments until they are sold. Any unsold instruments are listed by the foundation for a reasonable time. In the case of rain both sales will be conducted in the Commons area of the school. For further information call 949-0036.

GIVE A BIG HAND to the Jokers Motorcycle Club of Detroit's benefit concert for the Muscular Dystrophy Association by showing up to hear the battle of the bands from noon-9 p.m. Saturday at Northville High School, Sheldon near Eight Mile. Donations for adults, $4; for children under 12, $2. All proceeds go toward the association.

REGISTRATION FOR OCC'S fall semester will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., Sept. 2-4 according to an alphabetical schedule. Classes officially begin at 9 a.m. Sept. 5. Applications for the fall semester are still being accepted. Persons interested in attending the Orchard Ridge campus should call 476-9400 for further information on admission procedures.

SOONER THAN YOU'VE expected, Tag Days are here again for Farmington's high school band boosters. Yes, folks, that fund-raiser's scheduled for the last week of September. Ready or not, here they play.

WHERE HAVE ALL the marching bands gone? Gone to Blue Lakes Fine Arts Camp this very week to brush up on their music and cheering skills. All three schools' representatives (Farmington, North Farmington and Harrison high schools) are attending the camp at the same time, a first for the groups.

REGISTRATION FOR COURSES at St. Mary's College and Sts. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, Orchard Lake, will be conducted from 9:30 a.m.-8 p.m. Aug. 29 and Sept. 2 at the schools, Commerce and Orchard Lake Roads, Orchard Lake. Classes begin Sept. 3. For further information call the schools at 682-1885.

ST. ALEXANDER'S Roman Catholic Church, Shiawassee between Inkster and Middlebelt, will host a weekend festival Sept. 5-7. Funds will be used to eradicate the parish debt. This year's "Old Fashioned Festival" will include concessions, rides, games and a hot air balloon. The balloonist, Phil Glibbe of Ypsilanti will ride the skies at 6 p.m. Sept. 6, weather permitting. For bargain hunters, the fair will feature a bid a buck auction which limits bid amounts on special prizes to $1. Bidding for each item is timed with the last persons' bidding before the alarm sounds receiving the item. For sports fans, a 10-team softball tournament will be conducted. Preliminary games are Sept. 3, and the championship game is scheduled for 2:45 p.m. Sept. 7.

IA KNOWS this country is ga-ga over animals but the treatment Elsie the Cow will receive at the Michigan State Fair this year is a bit much even for Angles. Elsie, a 4-year-old Jersey cow, will appear with her 3-month-old calf Beauregard in what State Fair publicity calls a "human-like setting." Elsie will be stationed in a stall that looks like a four-poster bed. The calf will be in a stall built to resemble an oversized cradle. Neatly positioned besides Elsie's bed are four (count 'em) yellow slippers. There will be a TV set in the background, of course. A spokesperson for the dairy Elsie reportedly says the cow is "really a person, like the dedicated housewife who's concerned about the nutrition and health of her family." Elsie reportedly likes "Frostie Bits" cereal, shampoos daily and has a chauffeured trailer. (What cow doesn't?)

THE UNIVERSITY of Detroit offers a "virtually no homework" program in German, French or Spanish for 10 weeks beginning Sept. 15 on its campus, 4001 West McNichols, Detroit. At the end of the 10-week course, students will have acquired basic survival language skills. The Cartmouth Intensive Language Model course is being offered to adult evening students. For further information call 927-1238 or 368-5166.
