About the cover

Women's fashions are from Hudson's, Balcarres' wool plaid skirt and green wool jacket, Chaus white ruffle blouse, Golo's tasse loafer, Chaus' green shetland sweater and, to top it off, a navy tam. Men's clothing also from Hudson's, green tartan pant, green shetland sweater by Allan Paine, navy blazer by Stanley Blacker, a Gant oxford cloth button-down shirt, and the Dexter penny loafer.

The Eccentric and Observer newspapers gratefully acknowledge the assistance of the Cranbrook Educational Complex in Bloomfield Hills, the C.B. Charles Gallery in Pontiac, the Franklin branch of Detroit Bank and Trust and the Oakland Hills Country Club, which loaned their facilities to the editorial and photographic staff during the preparation of the 1980 edition of the fall fashion publication.

Design for evening. Albert Nipon's soft, creamy Swiss jacquard one-piece dress created for the romantic in you. Slightly blouson, asymmetrical wrap yoke, center front pleats. Acetate/celcose rayon with mini-leaf pattern. Sizes 4 to 12, 8-115.
