

Oscar de la Renta focuses this year on the jacket as the key to his Hapsburg-inspired fall collection. He believes, he said, this is a time for irresistible clothes. The more useful they are, the more gallant and ornamental they will make a woman look and feel.

He made a festive outfit by teaming a red merino wool jacket with black passementerie embroidery to a softly pleated black velvet skirt. The ascot blouse in white crepe de chine is lace outlined.
