

Herring on brunch menu

The Swedish Club of Metropolitan Detroit will serve a herring brunch from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 7 in the Finnish Cultural Center, 35200 Eight Mile Road.

On the menu is both fried and pickled herring, pork served Swedish-style, tossed salad, Swedish style pickled fresh cucumbers, home-baked cakes, coffee and refreshments.

The brunch is one of a string of fund-raisers the club is sponsoring this fall for its building program. Members have purchased land on the corner of Freedom Road and Ruth Road for the club's new complex.

Donation of $5 will be asked at the door. Advance reservations will be taken by calling Greta Nilsson, 425-3585.

Registration opens at Community Center

Registration for fall classes at the Farmington Community Center is open 9 a.m. to noon Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5-6.

Enrollment forms will also be accepted by mail beginning Sept. 6, with preference given to those accompanied by a check.

Jane Wiese, assistant director of the center, said registration will continue until classes are filled or cancelled for any reason.

"Classes will start as scheduled unless students are notified," she said. "To avoid disappointment, we strongly recommend that students register early."

Office hours in the center, at 24705 Farmington Road, are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday; 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

Examples of arts and crafts that will be taught in the center this fall will be on display during in-person registration days.

Free copies of the fall brochure, listing all classes, workshops and events are available in the center.

Inquiries will be taken by calling the center, 477-8494 during office hours.

Lamaze at Y

Plymouth Childbirth Education Association begins Lamaze childbirth classes in Farmington YMCA beginning Sept. 10. Inquiries are taken by calling the association, 459-7477.
