

Thursday, Sept. 4

Each day of the Plymouth Fall Festival is special in its own way.

Thursday is, of course, opening day.

And if opening day 1980 is like the past 24 years, it should be a good day to attend the festival for those who don't like to get lost in the crowds.

Traditionally, the turnout to the festival is lowest on Thursday as the crowds pick up momentum as the four-day event marches towards Sunday.

And so Thursday is a great time to visit all the booths, sample the goodies, take the kids on the pony and train rides, visit the flea market, and get a good flavor of what the Fall Festival is all about.

This year, Thursday also is a special day because opening ceremonies have been planned that evening in Kellogg Park. Because this is the silver anniversary of the Fall Festival, the special opening ceremonies have been planned at the bandshell from 7-8 p.m.

IN BETWEEN, though, festival-goers will want to have lunch with the Grange and dinner with the Kiwanians. Home cooking and homemade baked goods offer a great fare for diners in the Grange Hall on Union immediately north of Penniman Avenue near the northeast corner of Kellogg Park.

And then from 4-9 p.m., the Colonial Kiwanis Club of Plymouth will sponsor its annual spaghetti dinner in the park with the serving line being along Penniman from Union to Main.

For out-of-town visitors, most of the meals are served at or near Kellogg Park, which is in the heart of Plymouth at Ann Arbor Trail and Main Street (Plymouth Road).
