

Oasis softball squad captures championship

Oasis Golf Center women's fastpitch softball team worked on Labor Day and it was well worth the effort. Coach Bob Boyd's squad capped a storied summer by winning the Class B state championship at Charlevoix. Even more remarkable was the way Oasis battled back after losing an opening round game Saturday to Great Lakes Benton Harbor, 1-0.

Oasis followed the loss with eight straight victories in the 16-team, double-elimination tournament.

"We played outstanding defense throughout the tournament," said Boyd, who guided the team to a final 26-4 record.

"It was very rewarding," he said.

Oasis captured the championship Monday with a 6-1 triumph over Bay City as Denise Cifaldi provided the offensive power with three hits and pitcher Jan Boyd hurled a shutout after yielding two hits and a run in the first inning.

Jody Humphries, an All-State player from Westland John Glenn, broke a 1-1 deadlock in the fifth inning with a two-run triple. The winners collected three more runs in the sixth to put the game away.

Sherry Kisselca, an All-Stater from Garden City East, and Humphries, were awarded the best infielder and outfielder trophies respectively for the tournament.

Cifaldi won the best pitcher award with a 4-1 record, allowing only an unearned run in the tournament opener against Benton Harbor.

Oasis began its road back with a 2-1 win Saturday over Ludington.

Trailing 1-0 in the fourth inning, Oasis leftfielder Joanne Pachiva opened with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt and scored on a clutch single by Allison Cole.

Plymouth Salem graduate Sue McDowell, headed for Indiana State this fall, drove home the decisive run in the fifth with a single to score Vickie Forest, who had tripled.

Cifaldi was the winning pitcher. She tossed a one-hitter.

Oasis then collected 14 hits in clobbering Alpena, 7-0. Pachiva led the way with three of the 14 safeties. McDowell, Humphries and Kisselca each had two.

Humphries had a two-run homer and Boyd picked up the pitching win, scattering six hits in going the distance.

Cifaldi tossed a six-hitter as Oasis won its third in a row with a 4-1 victory over Coldwater. Diane Connaughton got things going for Oasis in the third inning when she was hit by a pitch and later scored on single by Humphries. A single by Julie Stafford brought home Humphries. Oasis then broke it open in the sixth on a double by Humphries and consecutive triples by Cole and Forest.

OASIS WON its fourth in a row with an 11-0 win over Mum Maw Construction of Benton Harbor as Boyd picked up her second victory of the tourney with a three-hitter.

Kisselca paced the offense with three hits, including a two-run homer.

In a key showdown, Oasis notched its fifth in a row with a 2-0 win over Petoskey.

Cifaldi outdueled Petoskey's Donna Fagette for the win. Cifaldi struck out seven while Fagette whiffed nine Oasis batters. Both runs came in the fourth inning when Pachiva and Cole both walked and Stafford was safe on an error to load the bases. McDowell followed with a single, driving home Pachiva. Cole then scored on a wild pitch.

Oasis moved into the finals and a shot at Bay City with a 12-1 rout over Escanaba as McDowell, Forest and Kathy Morris, who was added to the roster from Mason's Lounge, each collected three hits.

Vicky Cavallaro and Stafford added

two hits while Connaughton accounted for three RBIs.

Boyd handicuffed the Upper Peninsula batters on three hits.

Oasis had the task of facing the only unbeaten team left in the tourney on Monday — Bay City.

Boyd's squad was impressive with their first win over Bay City, 6-0, as Cifaldi pitched a masterpiece, facing the minimum 21 batters. Her bid for a perfect game was spoiled by Diane Butler's lead-off single in the fourth. Butler, however, did not spend much time on the base paths. She was erased on a double play.
