California Is Home For Couple

Recently-married Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Davis are making their home in Downey, Calif., following their wedding in the Neighborhood Congregational Church of Laguna Beach, Calif.

The bride is the former Constance Joyce Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe O. Donna of Merced Avenue, Redford Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of Lynwood, Calif., are the bridegroom's parents.

THE BRIDE's full-length gown was ivory with heavy lace trim. She carried a nosegay of red roses, stephanotis and holly.

Viola Hill of Boulder, Colo., formerly of Redford Township, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Kathleen Davis, sister of the bridegroom, and Patricia Jenkins, Linda Whittemore, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

They wore long green velvet gowns and their bouquets were red.

THE NEWLYWEDS went to Mexico City and Guadalajara for their honeymoon.

"The bride's parents flew to California for the wedding and recently returned from their stay in Long Beach.

The new Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Thurston High School and Wayne State University. Her husband is a graduate of California State College at Los Angeles and is doing graduate work there.

Nuptials Set In St. Aidan

Joanne Marie Mullally and Charles Edwin Baldwin exchanged nuptial vows Saturday, Jan. 10, in St. Aidan Catholic Church, Livonia.

The bride, a teacher at Livonia's Holy Spirit School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullally of Wood Drive, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin of Waukegan, Ill., are the bridegroom's parents.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Edward Sienko, pastor of the church, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride's attendants were her four sisters. Carolyn as maid of honor and Barbara, Betty and Peggy as bridesmaids.

James Boise was best man. Ushers were Jim Potter, Don Quinn and Glen King.

The couple received 200 guests in a reception in Glen Oaks Country Club, Farmington, before leaving on a Jamaica honeymoon. They are living in Livonia.

Stick-Free Pans

A new spray-on silicone coating lets you make almost any item in your cookware collection stick-free, says the manufacturer. The colorless, tasteless hard coating works on metal, glass or ceramic. One application ought to last up to seven or eight uses.

Money Wasted

Last year, according to authorities, arthritis threw away $300 million on phony diets, foods and devices. Such money could have been spent on good food, medical care and recreation.

Show Metal

The bulky look in shoes for boys features squared toes and puts a lot of emphasis on metallic trims.
