

Denny Primeau Gets Call From SF

It's possible that a few years from now, San Francisco Giants' baseball fans may hear: "And playing shortstop is Denny Primeau." Nineteen-year-old Dennis, of 994 Lionel, Livonia, Saturday was notified that he had been drafted by San Francisco.

Huron, has been playing ball for 10 years, starting with Little League teams. He was on the team at Northville High School three years. In his senior year, 1968, he was drafted by the Detroit Tigers, but decided he wanted to go to college before playing professional baseball. When he decided to enter St.

Clair, he naturally aimed for the baseball team and had no trouble making it. He is assured of a berth this spring too and his .299 batting average of last year didn't do any harm. Dennis said he has until the middle of June to decide whether to sign with the Giants or go to Bowling Green University where he would major in business administration. "I want to finish college," Dennis said, "and the Giants told me they want me to finish. If I decide to sign with them, where I go to school will depend on our negotiations. I could go to school in Arizona and play winter ball, or I might go to college here in Michigan."

ever, the only baseball lover. His father manages the Northville team in the Livonia Class A league. His brother, Jerry, 13, plays Little League ball in Livonia. Brother Jeff, 8, will try out for a team this spring. His two sisters, Sue, 17, and Karen, 12, don't play ball but can't help but be fans.

HE EXPLAINED that if he went to school in Arizona he would play with the club's farm team there. If he attended school in Michigan, he would be sent to the farm club in Decatur, Ill., playing ball during the summer months.

DENNIS IS ONE of five members of the St. Clair team to be drafted by various major league clubs, including Bill Fahey, a catcher, who lives in Redford. He has been drafted by the Washington club.

Dennis is the oldest of five children of Mr. and Mrs. William Primeau. He is not, however, his long dream of playing big league baseball is at least a step closer.

FIRST TO RECEIVE an autograph from Denny Primeau, who had learned he had been drafted by the San Francisco baseball club, is Connie Smith, of Livonia. Denny was one of the stars of the area baseball leagues last summer, playing out of Livonia.

Bookcase In A Frame

If you need a place to shove some books but are short on space, try attaching a tall, narrow frame to a wall. A "built-out" bookcase, 18 inches wide and five feet high, positioned at a convenient and proportional level on the wall, will house quite a collection. Use boards one-half inch thick and eight inches wide for the frame, which should be fastened securely to the studs (books are heavy!). Attach metal shelf-spacing strip on the inner sides and space shelves of half-inch matching wood to accommodate book heights. Frame and shelves may be stained to match paneling or painted to match or contrast with the wall for accent.

Richard Milazzo, Wayne State University's 1969 All-American fencer in foil, debuted impressively in dual competition this winter, sweeping all nine bouts in the team's first three matches.
