

Take a look at the scoring for Brother Rice Saturday, and you'd think that only three guys played for the Warriors.

And those three guys waited until the fourth quarter to get started.

Rice and Lake Shore slugged it out through three scoreless quarters Saturday before senior running back Mike Neff punched over from the five yard line.

Neff's touchdown capped off a 55-yard drive that took 16 plays. Rice began the drive on its own 45 after defensive-half Bruce Wilberding recovered a fumble.

Jim Ostrowski's kick made it 7-0, Rice.

Wilberding, Neff and Ostrowski teamed up the next time Rice scored. Again, Wilberding set it up with a big defensive play, this time intercepting an errant Lake Shore pass on the visitors' 33-yard line.

Rice took six plays to drive to the end zone. Neff balled over from one yard out for the score with 51 seconds left in the game. Ostrowski's kick made the final 14-0.

Neff led the Rice offense with 113 yards in 27 carries. The Warriors totaled 192 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Dave Yarema completed seven of 15 passing attempts for 58 yards.

Rice plays at Grosse Pointe North at 1 p.m. Saturday.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL 28, ANDOVER 6

The Shamrocks, defending Class A state champions, started slowly, but once they reaved their vaunted running game into high gear, there was no stopping them.

CC opened its football season with a 28-6 victory over Bloomfield Hills Andover.

Aaron Roberts, a 6-foot-2, 175-pound senior tailback with excellent speed, turned in what CC coach Tom Mach termed a phenomenal performance. The senior gained 193 yards and scored three touchdowns. Another long TD run was nullified by a clipping penalty.

The visiting Barons scored first on a two-yard quarterback sneak by Rick Forzano Jr.

He notched his second on a 29-yard sprint during which he hit the middle of the line, then cut to the outside away from the pursuit and into the endzone.

ROBERTS SCORED his third TD of the evening on a three-run bolt off tackle after the Barons lost the ball deep in their own territory with a botched punt attempt.

Tim Geraud scored CC's other touchdown with a 54 yard gallop up the middle.

Bill Matthews kicked all four extra points.

"I think they performed very well. I was especially pleased with the fact that they came back after they scored on us," said Mach. "They showed a great deal of poise and confidence in themselves."

Mach's statistics had CC out-gaining the Barons 331 yards to 15. The Shamrocks ran for the bulk of their yardage — 306 yards — as has been their bent in recent years and passed for only 25.

The Barons travel to Southfield High for their Southeastern Michigan Association debut at 8 p.m. Friday.

Rapin's play lifts FHS

Senior right winger Pat Farmington goal-ke Jack McIntosh was credited with 10 saves.

In another soccer game Monday, Lutheran High School Northwest dropped a 6-0 game to Hamtramck Immaculate Conception. Hamtramck scored all goals in the second half. Paul Goode, Lutheran Northwest goalie, faced 24 shots.

On Thursday, Sept. 11, Novi plays at Farmington.
