

'The Comedy of Errors' opens Barn Theatre

The Student Enterprise Theatre will repeat its spring production of William Shakespeare's "The Comedy of Errors" through Sept. 28 in the Barn Theatre of Oakland University on campus near Rochester.

The play originally ran June 6-22. "The Comedy of Errors" reopens with 8:30 p.m. curtains Friday-Saturday and Sept. 26-27. There are 6:30 p.m. curtains on Sunday and Sept. 28 and 2:30 p.m. matinees Sunday and Sept. 28. For tickets and information about group sales, call 377-2000.

Gary Devar of Waterford and Aaron Ford of Detroit take the respective roles of Antipholus of Syracuse and Antipholus of Ephesus. Cynthia Cole of Bloomfield Hills is Adriana, confused wife of Antipholus of Ephesus, who has her own husband arrested as a madman.

The Student Enterprise Theatre production follows the characters originally developed in the commedia dell'arte with stylized costumes, masks, clowns and acrobatics. The work is staged as it would be done by an itinerant Italian circus troupe.

The classic tale of mistaken identities concerns twin brothers separated in infancy by a shipwreck, twin servants, and a wife who cannot tell her husband from his twin brothers. The story unfolds as one brother, now grown, goes in search of his twin. After many misadventures, the entire family is reunited in a frantic courtroom scene.

NEW RELEASES

AIRPLANE (PG). A picture that takes off. This spoof of all those "Airport" movies is one of the zaniest films around.
THE BLUE LAGOON (R). Lush photography but silly story of two shipwrecked youngsters who grow up uninhibited on tropic isle.
THE BLUES BROTHERS (R). A film that's as unoriginal and dreary as it is expensive (very) with one meatball scene after another and enough car crashes to make AAA go belly up.
BRUKEBER (R). Serious drama with Robert Redford as reform warden fighting corruption on state prison farm.
CADDYSHACK (R). Chevy Chase and other comics in misadventures of caddies at a stuffy country club.
CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF THE THIRD KIND (PG). Added footage and some judicious editing improve an already good product, Spielberg's sci-fi adventure of aliens contacting Earth.
DRESSED TO KILL (R). Horny murder mystery with more than a passing resemblance to Hitchcock's "Psycho."
THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK (PG). "Star Wars" sequel unites original cast in continuation of battle against the evil empire.
FAME (R). Lots of young talent in vibrant musical about students at New York's School of Performing Arts.
THE FIENDISH PLOT OF DR. FU MANCHU (PG). Not very funny or very fiendish, but Peter Sellers' last film does include an occasional flash of comic genius that reminds us of what a gifted actor he was.
