Runners set for Schoolcraft

Northville will defend its team championship Saturday in the 15th running of the Schoolcrast College high school cross country invitational.

The three-mile race begins at 10.30 a.m. at Cass Benton Park along Hines Park Drive in Northville Twp., according to Steve Montgomery, meet director and Schoolcraft cross country coach.

coach.

Last year's boys' varsity winner was Doug Tolson of Wayne Memorial with a time of 15:05.5. Tolson, now a freshman at the University of Tennessee, finished first among 125 runners.
Redford Union was first among the six piris' teams entered last year. Angie Mogielski, a junior at RIU, will back to defend her title. Last, year be logged a time of 19:33.7 to top the 46grif field.

Montgomery, who coaches both boys' nd girls' cross country at Schoolcraft, and girls' cross country at Schoolcraft, said 20 high schools have been invited to participate this year.

The schools include Livonia Bentley, Redford Bishop Borgess, Plymouth Canton, Redford Catholic Central, Livonia Charchill, Livonia Charecville, Farmington, Livonia Prankley, Garden City East, Garden City West, Farmington Harrison, Westland John Glenn, Livonia Ladywood, North Farmington, Northville, Novi, Redford Thurston and Wayne Memorial.

Results and trophies will be given out at a luncheon in the Waterman Center on the Schoolcraft campus in Livonia following the meet.

Franklin needs wrestling coaches

Livonia Franklin Athletic Director George Lovich finds himself without any wrestling coaches with the season just a couple of months away.

Persons interested in applying for the positions — a head coach and an assistant are needed — may call Lovich at 425-1900, ext. 258, or apply in writing to Franklin, 3100 Joy Road, Livonia 48150. Former head coach Dar Kinczkowski resigned for personal rea-sons, and former assistant coach Jim O'Shea left to return to college full-time, according to Lovich.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Beginning October 1, 1980 an additional penalty of $5.50 will be each 1978 and prior years delinquent tax that appears unnaid on the records of the county treasurer.

This amount is added according to the provisions of Section 211.59 and 211.60 compiled laws of Michigan to cover the expense of sale at the next May tax sale.

Immediate payment will save you this additional penalty and keep your property from appearing in the public list of lands to be offered at tax sale.

Farmington, 65-40, in another game. Marcia Thompson scored 11 points for North, which fell to 0-3 under new coach Greg Gradzicki. Beth Fink scored 12 points for Dearborn, which led by seven points (29-22) at halftime. (Continued from Page 1C)
MERCY, WHICH led by five points (23-18) at halftime, used a zone press to good advantage. "We really upset them with our diamond-zone press." Baker said. "We started it near the end of the third quarter, and it gave us the momentum we needed."

Lori Pastula scored 13 points to pace Redford Union's 58-31 win over Farm-ington Harrison. Susic Solomon and Lori Winkel each scored eight points for Harrison, which dropped to 0-2.

Farmington plays next on Thursday, Sept. 18, at North Farmington. Mercy plays Monday night at Dearborn Divine Child and on Tuesday at home against Ann Arbor Pioneer. Farmington Lu-theran High Northwest plays Tuesday at Inkster Huron Valley Lutheran.

Plymouth girls outswim Hawks

Nancy Whittemore won two individ-ual events for Farmington Harrison Tuesday night, but her team dropped a 103-66 decision to Plymouth Salem in a non-league girls' swimming meet.

Whittemore won the 200-yard free-style (2:13.7) and the 100-yard butterfly (1:11.4). Micki Allen of Harrison won the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:41.0. Amy Dunn of Salern won the 50 free (:28.8) and the 100 free (1:03.4).

Harrison swims this evening at home against North Farmington. The meet begins at 7 p.m.
