Stats for you

Beginning this week The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers offers a weekly statistics page for its readers.
The statistics page will appear Thursday in the Birmingham-Bloomfield, Troy, Rochester and Farmington editions.
The page will include prep football standings, area's top swim times and other statistical features for readers in these communities.
Area coaches will be in charge of gathering information for the statistics page.
Girls' swim coaches are encouraged to call Bloomfield Hills Lahser coach Mike Rado with their best times. He is available from 2:30-4:30 p.m. Mondays-Fridays at 338-0311 or from 6-7 p.m. Mondays-Fridays at 625-7042.
Birmingham Brother Rice's Bob Stark will handle statistical information for cross country this year. Prep coaches from our area are encouraged to call Stark anytime at 648-1019.
Joe Clinton of Troy Athens has volunteered to keep girls' basketball statistics — top scorers and top rebounders. Coaches should call Clinton after 6 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 647-8562.
West Bloomfield's Art Link will handle all boys' golf statistical information. You may reach Link anytime at 477-3970.
We are still looking for coaches interested in compiling statistical information for football and boys' soccer.
Interested coaches should call the sports department at 644-1103, for more information.

Rice (again!) ranked No. 1 team in area

Birmingham Brother Rice has been chosen the No. 1 team in the Observer & Eccentric prep football rankings in Oakland County.

The Warriors, who registered two consecutive shutouts over St. Clair Shores Lake Shore (14-0) and Grose Pointe North (27-0), heads the field of 20 football teams in the Birmingham-Bloomfield, West Bloomfield, Southfield, Orchard Lake, Farmington, Troy and Rochester communities.

North Farmington's Raiders placed second after consecutive victories over Pontiac Northern and Walled Lake Central.

Bloomfield Hills Lahser, the surprise team in the area, wasn't expected to be undefeated going into the third week of the season. But victories over Birmingham Seaholm and highly touted Ann Arbor Pioneer earned the Knights a third-place ranking by the O & E.

Farmington Harrison, a strong Class B team, nailed down the No. 4 spot after a 13-12 victory over No. 6-ranked Class A Birmingham Groves last Friday.

AUBURN HEIGHTS AVONDALE, another strong Class B squad, ranks No. 5 after two impressive wins.

37-0 victory over Rochester High and a 35-0 victory over Madison Heights.

Lahser grabs top spot in rankings

Bloomfield Hills Lahser and Farmington Our Lady of Mercy are the top two girls' basketball teams in the Observer & Eccentric's Oakland County circulation area.

In a poll conducted by sports editors Tom Baer, Marty Budner and Dennis O'Connor, Lahser edged Mercy for the number one position. Lahser was picked first on two of the three ballots, tallying 20 points to Mercy's 19.

The editors picked what they believed to be the area's top seven basketball teams. Seven points were awarded for first place, six for second place, and so on down the line.

Lahser, coached by John Hansen, is an experienced and talented team. The Knights have all five starters returning from last year's squad that went undefeated (10-0) in the Metro-Suburban basketball

Activities Association (MSAA).

Mercy is a good-sized team with a strong winning tradition. The Marlins, state champions in 1977, are led by junior all Observer & Eccentric guard Denise Basford.

Both Lahser and Mercy were undefeated (2-0) as of Monday afternoon.

Walled Lake Central nailed down the third spot, followed by West Bloomfield, Rochester Adams, Farmington and Birmingham Marian.

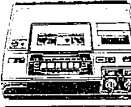

Groves, Lahser, Seaholm, Andover, Marian, Farmington Harrison, Farmington, Farmington Our Lady of Mercy, North Farmington, Auburn Heights Avondale, Rochester, Rochester Adams, Southfield, Southfield-Lathrup, Southfield Christian, Southfield Manooch, Troy, Troy Athens, West Bloomfield and Walled Lake Central.
