

Luncheon benefits theater actors

For its fourth "Luncheon on the Aisle," Meadow Brook Theatre Guild will present a full rehearsal of "Thieves Carnival," a frothy comedy by French playwright Jean Anouilh.

Jeanne Arnold, well known to Meadow Brook Theatre audiences, will again be the hostess of the afternoon festivities at the 11:30 a.m. Oct. 3 event. A box lunch will be served and local merchants have donated door prizes.

All proceeds for the event help provide services for actors who appear at the theater.

This year all seats are reserved. "Luncheon on the Aisle" tickets are $12.50 and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Douglas Prescott, 375-9248.

Exploring the cosmos

Fifteen billion years of cosmic history are explored in October planetarium demonstrations at Cranbrook Institute of Science. They are titled, "Cosmos: The Voyage to the Stars." Included in the planetarium demonstrations will be simulated spacecraft missions to the planets and communication with possible beings in other worlds.

Also, there will be stories of the forces and individuals who helped formulate concepts of modern science. Planetarium shows are at 4 p.m. Wednesdays, 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. Saturdays, and 2:30 and 4 p.m. Sundays through October. The Cranbrook Institute of Science is at 500 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.
