Own an Original Hunter Olde Tyme Ceiling Fan

Since 1886, Hunter has made the original, authentic ceiling fan, the one shipped to India, Africa and the rest of the world at the turn of century, and the kind that cooled Rick's Cafe in "Casablanca".
Your decorating efforts deserve this classic touch—not an imitation of it. And your budget reserves the money it can save in your home—circulating cool air from bottom to top in summer to make air conditioning much more efficient and distributing warm air evenly in winter to save on heating costs.
Hunter makes this original, classic fan in a wide range of styles from about $175 to $425. Select the blades, the color, the light adapter kit that suits your home best. See the entire collection in our Hunter catalog.
Send $1.00 for 8-page, 4-color catalog.

American look comes on strong

American look, whether country or sophisticated, has made itself known in the world of interior design. The country look is exemplified in the room above done by designer Peter Culhane. He took two corner sections and created a loveseat, then added Selig's rattan tables painted white to complete the scene for either beach or barn. There's a natural wood floor and painted barn siding for the walls. An antique quilt and farm tools are added to enrich the flavor. Below, Culhane combined Selig's contemporary furniture with more traditional surroundings. The crescent sofas are covered in driftwood color pin-dot velvet. At the window, yards of muslin add a soft (and inexpensive) line to the sophisticated interior.
