

Erwin Teepes mark 60th year

Alice and Erwin Teepes prepare to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary during a family dinner scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 26 at Botsford Inn.

One of the guests of honor will be the bride's sister, Louisa M. Paquette, who was matron of honor for the couple.

During World War I, Mrs. Teepes knitted socks for those of her fellow workers at Solvey Corporation who were serving overseas in France. When Teepes returned, he sought out the young woman who had made his socks. Since their marriage, the Teepes have lived in the Detroit area, and now make their home in Farmington.

Guests at the dinner party will include the couple's daughter and son-in-law, Joyce and Robert Catlin, and their children from Rockaway, N.J.

Currier-Vecore

Kathryn Ellen Vecore and George John Currier Jr. were married by the Rev. Bartlett L. Hess in Ward Presbyterian Church in Livonia. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vecore of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Currier of Livonia.

The bride wore a turn-of-the-century styled gown and she carried daisies and blue carnations.

She was attended by Ruth Vecore, Connie Currier, Sharon Trahey, Lori Buller and Shirley Shaw, who were clad in gowns of blue lace and picture hats.

The groom was attended by Greg Oswald, John Hooker, Jim Vecore, Bob Currier, Robert Shaw, Bill Greenman and Dan Marlow.

The bride is a graduate of Redford Union High School, employed with Franklin Eye Consultants. The groom is a graduate of Stevenson High School employed as a draftsman with Chrysler Corp.

The couple received guests in Dearborn's Park Place before leaving on a Caribbean cruise. They will make their home in Southfield.

Fair benefits symphony

Scandinavian Symphony Women's Organization stages its largest fund-raiser of the year to benefit the orchestra from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday in Finnish Cultural Center, 35200 Eight Mile Road. Ethnic handicrafts and imports that will go up for sale are gathered by Laima Lanpi (at left), Arra

Kuusisto and Lempi Helin, whose specialty is Pullo, a Finnish coffee cake. There is no admission to Scandinavian Fair. Lunch is served from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Scandinavian-style. (Staff photo by Mindy Saunders)

Tables for rent to craftsmen

All area craftsmen are invited to participate in Alameda Elementary School's Annual Craft Show, set this year to run from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, in the school on Power Road, between 10 and 11 mile roads. Tables are rented for $10 each. Interested persons may call Gail Salley, 477-1975.
