Charles Cook graduates as osteopath

Charles Cook received his degree as an osteopathic physician and surgeon from the Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine in June.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Cook of Farmington.

Relatives from Texas, Wisconsin and Michigan attended the ceremony in Chicago's Rockefeller Cathedral.

Cook graduated from Farmington High School in 1972 and completed his pre-medical studies at Albion College.

After a three-week tour of Europe, Cook began his internship at Riverside Hospital in Trenton. He plans to specialize in family practice.
