

Beautification winners named

Commission singles out businesses that spruce up town

Farmington's Beautification Commission honored businesses and individuals recently who have strived to improve that community's appearance. Conducting its annual luncheon at the Farmington Masonic Temple, the commission's host was Chairman Jackie Steuer. Awards were presented by program Chairwoman Carol Kurth. Addressing the gathering were Farmington Mayor William Hartsock and Lincoln Avery of Keep Michigan Beautiful Inc.

Two special awards were given this year: Joanne McShane was named as the commission's friend of the year; Walter Sundquist, of Heeneys-Sundquist Funeral Home, was honored for winning a beautification award for 12 consecutive years.

The commission determines awards by inspecting businesses periodically throughout the year to see how businesses are maintained. Winners are broken down by category.

Winning plaques for general business were: Burger Chef, Burger King, Drake's Professional Center, Dr. Walter DeMatia, First Farmington Savings & Loan, First Federal Savings of Detroit, Heeneys-Sundquist Funeral Home, Gordon Meyers Building, Plaza Veterinary Hospital Complex, Professional Pavilion-Pediatrics Association, Suburban Catholic Credit Union, Thayer-Rock

Funeral Home, Tektronix Inc., United Northwestern Realty Association and Thomas Duke Jr. offices.

INDUSTRY AWARDS went to American Screw Products, H.R. Krueger Machine Tool, and Jaycee-Coe Sales Inc.

Church winners were First Baptist Church of Farmington and First Church of Christ Scientist.

The auto service facilities award went to Ole Toll Shell Auto Care Center.

Apartment complexes honored were: Anderson Apartments, Heritage Village West Condominiums, Jamestown Apartments, Kensington Manor Apartments, Kingsland Apartments, Kingslake Co-op Inc., Parkview Apartments, River Glen Condominiums and Wynest Condominiums.

Community and civic building awards went to the Farmington District Library, 47th District Court, and the Municipal offices of Farmington.

Restoration and Improvement plaques went to the Farmington Center Company and the Michigan Bell Phone Center store.

Special buildings plaque went to the Huron River Hunting and Fishing Club. Store front business certificates went to the Art Alcove, Bolinas Reef, Bon-Ton Shoppe, Focal Point, Framery One, Golden Fleece, Richard's Boys and Girls Wear and the Terrace Shop. A shopping center certificate was awarded to the Drake's Shopping Center.

Good neighbor awards were given to Fred Hamlin, Lorraine McClish, Nancy Leonard and Samuel Hawkins.

Special commendations went to the Farmington Shoe Repair, Farmington Historical Commission, Green's Hamburgers, Boy Scout Troop 162 and Boy Scout Troop 179.

House value keeps pace
The value of existing housing is keeping pace with the rising costs of new housing, according to the Western Wayne Oakland County Board of Realtors (WWORCB). Examining national figures on building costs and median prices, the Board found the median selling price of new houses rose from $35,900 in 1974 to $62,900 last year or 75 percent.
