

INSIDE ANGLES

BY LOUISE OKRUTSKY

'TIS THE SEASON of holiday bazaars. Sooner than you can say "Pass the drumsticks," Alameda PTA presents a craft sale from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Nov. 8 in Alameda Elementary School, off of Power between 10 and 11 Mile roads in Farmington Hills. There is a $10 table rental for those selling crafts. Hot food will be for sale. This is the second annual Alameda early-bird sale. To rent a table call Gail Salley at 477-1975.

WOODCHIPS FOR NATURE: Oakland Community College-Orchard Ridge campus is asking residents for woodchips. No, they aren't raising hamsters but the "Man in the Environment" biology class conducted by OCC's own Father Nature, Bill McNaughton, needs woodchips for the campus nature trails. The trails, which are open to the public, need about 5-to-6 inches of woodchip covering. The class has looked here and there and everywhere for the elusive chips. Now, they're asking anyone who knows of the whereabouts of some or, better yet, has some they want to get rid of, to call the campus at 476-9400 and ask for McNaughton.

WHILE ALL THE GROWN-UPS stood in line to cast their vote earlier this week, the preschoolers in ArtStart at Mercy Center faced the difficult decision of choosing the most popular snack. Youngsters voted for oranges, apples and raisins. (Some adults wished it was all that simple, always.)

ANGLES WANTS to send its very own congratulations to Chris Sage and Dana Kaufman who were married Oct. 31 in Our Lady of Sorrows Roman Catholic Church, Farmington. The Rev. Gary Busche conducted the entire ceremony in the sign language for the deaf, even signing the songs used during the wedding. The ceremony meant all that much more to the newlyweds and their families since both bride and groom are deaf. The couple will honeymoon in Florida, according to proud mom, Corolla Kaufman of Farmington Hills. To all concerned, Angles sends a loving bouquet of exclamation points: !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

THE FARMINGTON YMCA conducted an open house last week and managed to give away a few prizes. Don Millington and his family of Farmington Hills won a family membership to the Y while Marianne Tashjian of Farmington won an adult membership. Sharon Wightman of Farmington Hills was awarded the youth membership. The memberships will last one year.

ANOTHER BRANCH of the Y, this time the YWCA in western Wayne County presents a program on self-defense from Nov. 12-Dec. 10 and again on Jan. 7. The initial cost is $12 and the continuous program which starts in January carries a $10 fee per month. The program incorporates the principles of body conditioning and karate techniques that make the students prepared and fit. The class, open to teens and adults both male and female, will be taught by George Grigoriant, a black belt in Jushuryu karate. To enroll call the Y at 561-4110 or stop in at the Y, 26279 Michigan between Beech Daly and John Daly.

THEY MAY NOT be the Harlem Globetrotters but they sure have fun at the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department Boys and Girls Basketball League. Coaches and players clinics are conducted at the following times for boys:

- 10-11:30 a.m., Dec. 6 in North Farmington High School, 13 Mile east of Farmington Road.
- 10-11:30 a.m., Dec. 13 at Harrison High School, 12 Mile east of Orchard Lake Road.

• 10-11:30 a.m., Dec. 20 at Farmington High School on Shiawassee near Orchard Lake Road.

The following times are devoted to girls' clinics:

- 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Dec. 6 in North Farmington.
- 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Dec. 13 in Harrison High.
- From 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Dec. 20 in Farmington High.

Practice begins the week of Dec. 8 at the schools and games begin the week of Jan. 10. The program carries a $10 charge and is open to students in grades 5-8. It is structured to teach the fundamentals of the game. There are four divisions, fifth- and sixth-grade boys, seventh- and eighth-grade boys with the girls divided into the same fashion. For further information call the parks and recreation department at 474-6115. Registration deadline is Nov. 14.

THE PARKS AND RECREATION department also sponsors a program of therapeutic recreational activity for mildly to moderately handicapped persons from 6-18 years old. Monday and Wednesday activities are conducted from 4-5:30 p.m. in the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee Road west of Middlebelt between 9 Mile and Orchard Lake roads. There will be Saturday field trips from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. The program ends Dec. 13. To register or for further information call the parks and recreation department at 474-6115.

MORE RELIABLE than St. Bernards, the National Ski Patrol System conducts a training session for patrolers at Independence Oaks, near Clarkston, on Nov. 15-16. Patrolers must be of intermediate skiing ability, possess an advanced first aid or Department of Transportation emergency medical technician certification. They must be at least 16 years old and pay annual dues to the National Ski Patrol.
