

In the pocket/W.W. Edgar

The doors to the Detroit Bowling Hall of Fame in Cobo Hall will be opened Sunday to admit five new honorees and bring to 95 the number of persons honored since the Hall was opened in 1957.

Heading the list of honorees is George Prybyla, manager of Thunder-bowl Lanes in Allen Park, who has been president of both the state and city bowling proprietors organizations. With him will be Tom McKay, executive secretary of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, Marie Shamlock, a member of the Goats by Enterprise team of years ago, Bob Kwolek, former member of the all-star leagues, and Marion Gorman, who will be honored posthumously.

THE SHARPSHOOTERS at Westland Bowl kept up the tradition of at least three 700 series each week. This time, they came up with four.

Dick Beattie showed the way with a closing 280 in 756. Only four pins back came Frank Mugerichian with a middle game of 268 in 752, to tie with Greg Bashara who had an opening 280 in his 752. The other barrier-breaker was Kessick with 711.

In the ladies' division, Aleta Ruzbecki and Cheryl Daniels continued their rivalry with Aleta gaining the top honor with 680, while Cheryl had a 652.

THERE WAS a rare triplicate at Woodland Lanes when the Whirly Bird team posted a 695 in each of its three games.

The members of the team are Lee Mason, Pat Hassa, Joe Pobek and Lee Hanna. Steve Flych took high-game honors in the Friday league with a 237, three pins more than Mike Cunningham.

Betty Woodcock had one of her best days with games of 248 and 220 to lead the Flyers with 638 and Julius Brodie was tops in the Senior Citizens loop with 650.

THE CLOSEST FINISH of the season in the mixed classic at Farmington

Lanes was posted this week when only eight pins separated the three leaders. Jan Vandermill was at the head of the list at the finish with a 211 in 619. Kay Markell was right behind with 234 in 617 and Jim Harris was third with 211 in 611. The feature is the fact that they are members the same team.

In the noon classic John Lapham was high with 689, while Ron Sexton landed second with 278 in 677. A few lanes away from the leaders, Rudy Pearson converted the "impossible" 7-10 split. Tina Schlickenkemper rolled the 210, 200 game by a girl in the 17-year history of the after-school league when she found the range for a 206. She is a 17-year-old member of the Botsford school team.

Ken Hibbs, with a 234 in 696, paced the Monday men's league with a margin of 42 pins over Doug DeMarious, who landed second with a 231 in 654.

RON AMAN rolled a 279 game in the Pile Drivers league at Plaza Lanes but could do no better than second place with a 660 count. He had to give way to Don Rousseau, who posted a 681 with a 254 opener.

MARION DONAHUE took top honors in the Livonia Ladies Classic with 499-429-628 that included victory in the first game with 166-43-209.

In the other games, Diana Mackin-dare won the second with 190-39-229 and Marion Heath took the third with 199-37-236.

JOAN SALVADORE showed the way in the Friday ladies classic at Merri-Bowl with a 208 in 614.

In the other loops, Carol Totie paced the Bowlerettes with 257 in 521, Dan Lumas was tops in the Junior House league with 692 that included a 288 game.

Bill Griffiths was high in the Legion loop with a 263 game, while Gloria Mertz landed on top in the Doubles with a 234 in 600 and Ray Nager was high in the Handicap league with 243.

Announcing a special disc brake special.
$64.95 (Regularly $81.95)
It's a special because of the price. And a special special because I back it in writing. First, I rebuild the calipers, true the discs, replace the pads and repack the front wheel bearings. I bleed the brakes, flush the lines, inspect the hoses and lines, and check the hydraulic action. Then I give you a written limited warranty. It covers all parts and labor for 90 days or 4,000 miles of normal driving, whichever comes first. Any problems, bring your car and your warranty back. I'll do the work over or refund your money.
