Musical 'No Strings' opens at OCC

The Southeast Theatre Association will open its third season Friday with a performance of Richard Rodgers' musical "No Strings."

Certain time is 8 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays and 7 p.m. Sundays through Nov. 23. Set in present-day Paris, the show features a chorus of models and dancers, plus 14 musical numbers by Rodgers.

The theater is located at the Royal Oak campus of Oakland Community College, 703 S. Center off Washington. Tickets are $4 and may be purchased at the door or reserved by calling 548-

1252 weekdays and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon.

Former Bonstelle actress Terie L. Estes of Detroit recreates the role written for Diahann Carroll. Area residents in the cast include Tony Marzalise of Birmingham and Elizabeth

Bishop of Birmingham, who is also the choreographer.

The 18-piece orchestra is under the direction of Jean-George Fleury of Birmingham. Artistic director for the association is Birmingham resident Tom Kegel, of the college staff.

Audubon Society to tour Pine Grove

The Junior Oakland Audubon Society will tour the Pine Grove Historical Museum at its next meeting, 10-12 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 8.

The museum, headquarters of the Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society, is located at 405 Oakland Ave. (US-10), north of Wide Track Drive in Pontiac.

Junior Audubon is sponsored by the Oakland Audubon Society, according to spokesman Byron Babbish (365-8775). There are no fees or dues.

Our $7.95 Shrimp Dinner is a whale of a deal.

The Dry Dock's great tasting seafood has always been the talk of the town. And now people are spouting off about the low price on our splashy shrimp dinner.

Here's why. You get a plate full of succulent, tender, deep fried shrimp. Plus, a freshly tossed green salad, hot bread and butter, vegetable of the day and your choice of rice, baked potato or Home Fries. All for a price that won't soak you. Just $7.95.

So chart your course for the Dry Dock and put the bite on our special shrimp dinner. It's a whale of a meal. At a minnow of a price.
