THE GATHERING PLACE is now taking reservations from senior citizens who want to be included in two field trips.

The bus leaves at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22 for the Redford Harmony Club's presentation, "Vaudeville 1980" in Redford Theatre. Ticket and transportation is $5.

At 1 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 4, a bus will leave the Gathering Place for Meadowbrook Hall and a Christmas walk through the old mansion. Package-priced ticket is $11, which includes tea after the tour.

The Gathering Place is in Mercy Conference Center, 28600 11 Mile Road, and is open from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. weekdays.

Bible College continues building plans

Approximately 150 people attended the ground breaking and consecration ceremony for the Student Living Center to be located on Detroit Bible College's new campus 12 Mile and Drake roads in Farmington Hills.

Persons representing the board of directors, the staff, the faculty, the students, the alumni and supporters of the college each took a turn breaking the ground. Dr. Bartlett Hess of Ward Presbyterian Church in Livonia led the litany and prayer of consecration.

The Student Living Center is scheduled for completion in the fall of 1981. It will house 96 students and will include a full cafeteria, kitchen and lounge.

DETROIT STORY LEAGUE meets at noon, Saturday, Nov. 15 in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road for a session called "Storm Windows." The theme for the day is in keeping with the group's "Window" theme for the year.

The session is open to guests who wish to sit in and observe the workings of the group, whose aim is to keep alive the art of storytelling.

Guests and members bring their own lunch. Beverage and dessert is furnished by the hostesses for the day.

The meeting consists of storytelling by four members, and a storytelling workshop.

MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF CALLIGRAPHERS meets at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 17, in Farmington Community Library on Liberty Street.
