An election meeting of the Detroit area chapter of the American Historical Society of Germans from Russia (AHSGR) will be held Thursday, Nov. 20 in Farmington.

in the 18th Century, Ms. Hoffman explained.

Nearly all of the German Russians have since been driven from their original homelands.

The Detroit area chapter was chartered during the national convention of AHSGR in Dearborn this past summer.

AHSGR is a national organization which assists families in tracing their ancestry to Russia where Germans pioneered hundreds of communities during the reign of Catherine the Great.

Persons wishing to attend the dinner are asked to call Ms. Hoffman at 478-9767. No reservations are necessary to attend the meeting that follows at 8 p.m.
