It's a joke! Rice rips Central

By DENNIS O'CONNOR

It was a joke.

It was no contest.

It was nembarrassment.

That's right — semifinal action.
But what the 6,014 fans at Birmingham Groves actually saw was an embarrassing laugher.

The Warriors now face a two-week layoff before battling Dearborn Fordson (11-0) in the Class A finale at 1 pm. Saturday, Nov. 29, at the Pontiac Silverdome. The Tractors advanced to the championship game with a 28-12 victory over East Kentwood in the other Class A semifinal contest.

The Warriors (11-0) raced to a 14-0 first-quarter advantage and a 35-6 half-time lead. Their first-team offense never stepped foot on the Groves' gridiron in the entire second half.

"NO MISTAKES this time." Fracas-as said. "I hope we didn't disappoint anybody. We executed well. We had good concentration, and the kids want-cit. We left the game in the locker room" said Contral cach Dave Snead. "Our kids didn't do what we wanted dhem to do — they were going for the increeption." We left the game in the locker forms when the charmless high game with a 28-12 victory over East Kentwood in the other Class A semifinal contest.

THE TRAILBLAZERS (9-2), upset winners over Public School League champion Detroit Cooley in the quarterfinals, never had a chance against Brother Rice.

Redford, a senior at Western Michigan University, helped the Broncos' cross country team capture its second-straight Mid-American championship and its fourth title in the last five years at the league meet Nov. 1.

The Farmington Harrison graduate and West Bloomfield resident was the fourth Bronco to cross the finish line. He placed lith overall, covering Western's 10,000-meter Elk's Club course in 3148.9.

Western Michigan edged Miami University, 64-69, to win the conference championship.

"Mike has been the senior leader of the team all year long," said coach Jack Sahw. "He came in a very pivotal spot for us in the race. He started well, faded in the middle and cume on strong at the end where it counted most."
