

Which one of us will be next? That's the question being asked the the visitors at the old English mansion. They are (from left) Laurie Larson, David Perlman, Kelly Jacobs, Frank Vogel, Ed Blondin, David Livingstone, Mike Mendelson, Michael Warren and Tim Pantiedosie. (Staff photos by Randy Borst)

Murder awaits Indians

Get set for some spine-chilling mys-tery tonight and tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. as Harrison High School's drama department presents "Ten Little Indi-ans."

The Agatha Christie murder mystery is being directed by seniors Debbie Auerback and Julie Ross.

The cast includes Michael Warren (Captain Lombard), Lauri Larson (Vera Claythorn), David Livingstone (Judge Wargrave) and Mike Mendelson (Wil-liam Blore).

Others in the cast are Kelly Jacob, Ed Blondin, David Perlman, Tim Pan-tiedosie, Frank Vogel, Debbie Newbould, Nancy Young and Barry Frank.

Set in the present, the story revolves around 10 persons invited to an old English mansion on Indian Island. The guests begin to die following the pat-tern of a nursery rhyme hanging over the fireplace.

Tickets can be purchased at the door.

Detective William Blore (played by Mike Mendelson) is at a los his quest to find out the mystery of the perishing guests.

THE MILITARY Order of Cootie Auxiliary THE MILLITARY Order of Cochie Auxiliary 22 conducts its monthly business meeting at 8 p.m. Nov. 21 at the V.F.W. Hall, 23414 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills. The Grand President of Michigan will make her official visit at the meeting. The group's members voluntier for hospital work and put on programs and parties for persons in veterans' hospital and convalescent mes

RABBIT EARS aren't found only on the tops of television sets. A lot of them are found also in the movie "Watership Down," which plays at 7 p.m. tonight in 3 240 on the Oakhand Community College-Orchard Ridge campus.

ANOTHER ARTS and crafts sale is scheduled in the boliday cycle of such events. This one runs from 10 a.m. bo 4 p.m. Dec. 8-11 at Heary Ford Haspital West Bloomfield Center, 6777 West Maple (15 Mile), 2½ miles west of Orchard Lake Road. If you would like to sell homemade litens, registration for a table is open until Nov. 28. Call Beity Johnston or Jan York at 601-1410, ext. 207 or 216. Ten percent of the money earned through the hospital's fund for needy families.

THE HUB 30 Ups will conduct a dance to celebrate the fourth anniversiary of the YWCA club from 8-11 p.m. Nov. 30 at the YWCA ramily Center, 26379 Michigan, between Beech Daly and John Daly, Music will be pervoided by Don Wilson and his band. Refreshments will be served. HUB dances are conducted from 8-11 p.m. every Sunday and his band. Refreshments will be served. HUB dances are conducted from 3-11 p.m. every Sunday with dance lessons taught by Shirley Blair and Ray Keller at 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. Admission is $3 for guests, $2.50 for YW members. The public is invited. For information call, Pamela Cronewett at the YWCA, 561-4110.

ON THE ROAD ACAIN: Farmington school administrators are hitting the lecture circuit one more time as they travel hittine, tither and yon (hat's yon, not yawn) to address other educators on the preparations needed in switching to a middle school system. On Nov, 3, Superintendent Lou "Schulman, with assistant Superintendent Lou "Schulman, The Fort Wayne Journal Gazette bendline on a story about the presentation said: "Displaced principal, Ton Keen, "OE Dunckel principal, Don Keen, "OE Dunckel principal, Dan Cowen, North "Paratington High principal, and Jerry Politer, "Paratington High principal, and Jerry Politer, "Paratington High principal, and represent view c from the 44 state departments of education. They discussed developing middle school curriculum and keeping professionals and parents involved in the switch to middle schools. The Farmington school systems traveling lecture appeared in Indianapolis last year. (Can the Johnny Carson Show be far off?)

4

4

LEGS, LEGS, LEGS were all over the Art Alcove's window as display designers Judy Mahlin and Joyce Shaupeter ran away with a ballet theme evently. All that Soft Sculpture accented by ballet committee's award for the best window display. Ms. Mahlin and Ms. Schaupeter are leaping into their Christmas projects soon. The Art Alcove's next window display will reveal what happens when a little boy discovers Santa leaving some presents, and i will show a wee little off at work making picture frames. This is the first year the duo bas decorated windows. In homo of their award winning effort and the first antiversary of their collaboration coming up in January, IA sends this salute: 1111111111111111111111111

HERE'S THE last installment of Christmas mailing deadlines for all of you making a list and checking it twice:

Military mail deadlines; Dec. 1: PAL (parcels airlifted as space permits) to the Caribbean and West Indies, Greenland and Iceland. SAM to Hawali, Alaska and letters to Australia, Central and South America and Southeast Asia.

Dec. 5: letters to the Mideast.

Dec. 5: airmail letters and cards to the Mideast

Dec. 8: airmail letters and cards to North and Northwest Africa, Southeast Africa and West Africa. Air parcels to Europe and the Far East.

Dec. 12: airmail letters and cards to Europe and the Far East.

Dec. 15: airmail letters and cards to the Caribbean and the West Indies.

AN EVENING of Polish song and dance is scheduled for 7.30 p.m. Nov. 18 in the auditorium of the Orchard Lake Schools in Orchard Lake Michigan. The program. Byle Bylo Tak features Pollan singer Hread Santor accompanied by musicians and dancers. Tickels are 34 and can be bought at the door. Call the campus at 682-4124 for further information.

Dec. 8: letters to Africa and the Far East. International mall to civilians: Dec. 1: airmail cards and letters to Australia, Central and South America, Southeast Asia. Air parcels to Central and South America and Southeast Asia.

Keep up his status appearance with the LaCoste° travel bag and belt gift trio

That famous LaCoste³ alligator is showing up on personal gifts for your status conscious man. The handy travel bag zips up his must-haves for weekends away. Made of durable canvas with vinyl trim in natural, green or navy. $25 in Menris Accessories, only at Hudson's Downtown, Northland, Eastland.

Pontiac, Oakland, Fairlane, Briar-wood and Lakeside. Or choose this versatile belt gift pack, with olligator signature basis gui pack, whin olligator signature brass buckle that interchanges with three fabric beits in green, khakl and navy, $25 per boxed set. In Hudson's Men's

Accessories, all stores. hudson's your christmas world

This is all too much for Anthony Marston (played by Ed Blondin) who resorts to having a drink to relieve the murder mystery tension.