

Movin' Theatre presents two performances at Detroit Youtheatre's "Something Every Saturday."

'Head Over Heels' is showcased

Wayne State University's Theatre Department's Movin' Theatre will be showcased live on stage for Detroit Youtheatre's "Something Every Saturday" audiences in "Head Over Heels" at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday, in the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium.

Tickets at $2 for children and adults and $1.50 each in groups of 10 or more, may be purchased in advance through the museum ticket office and at the door. Featuring the dancing, fights and falls which have made Broadway plays and Hollywood movies so popular, Movin' Theatre will run the gamut from intricate sword fights of Errol Flynn to the up-beat disco of John Travolta in this non-stop show.

The performance surveys the various styles of movement and theatrical dances used in stage productions from medieval times through the present. For ticket information and a Detroit Youtheatre "Something Every Saturday" schedule of shows through May 1981 call the Detroit Institute of Arts ticket office at 832-2710.

Preview opens production

Wayne State University President Thomas N. Bonner entertained the Hilberry Theatre's 1980-81 Sponsor at the President's Preview performance of "Boy Meets Girl" on Saturday at the Hilberry in Detroit.

The performance was preceded by a subscription dinner at McGregor Memorial Conference Center, which was the setting for "Act IV," the reception following the play for all guests and the Hilberry's graduate repertory company.

The event also was the celebration of another record-breaking year for fund raising by the theater's 66 Understudies, the committee of Detroit area women who have assumed the task of finding sponsors to contribute to the support of the graduate students that make up the Hilberry company.

According to Mrs. Irving Dworkin, Understudies president, more than $70,000 has been raised, mostly through individual contributions of $125 or more. This is $10,000 more than the amount raised last season and approximately $15,000 more than that raised in 1978.

MRS. DWORKIN also called attention to the hundreds of Understudies who have helped the Theater for the last 17 years, and the five past presidents, whose photos now hang in the Hilberry's foyer, with a list of the Understudies who served under them.

The President's Preview annually culminates the Understudies' fund raising drive for the support of the repertory company, this year composed of members from 20 states and the Dominion of Canada.

The group includes 23 actors and actresses, 17 technicians and six administrative assistants, who come for advanced training and intensive performance experience in preparation for professional careers.

Former Hilberry members are currently found working on Broadway, off-Broadway, in regional resident theater, in films and television. Others are on the faculties of some of the nation's leading universities.

The preview's featured performance, "Boy Meets Girl," is a comedy by Bolla and Samuel Speckack and will continue in the 1980-81 repertory through February.
