

'The Mouse that Roared' again proves it's not a pipsqueak

The tiny country of Grand Fenwich is at it again in the Mercy High School presentation of "The Mouse that Roared" at 8 p.m., Nov. 21-22 in Our Lady of Mercy High School, 29300 West 11 Mile near Middlebelt in Farmington Hills.

Tickets to the play which centers on the tiny country's hope to lose a war against the U.S. so it can benefit from that country's rehabilitation efforts are on sale at the door for $2.50.

Planning, planning, planning is essential to any war effort as Todd Fortinski of Farmington Hills who plays Mr. Weston and Barb Johnson of Livonia as Miss Johnson learn in the play "The Mouse that Roared."

The Duchess Gloriana the 12th, played by Lori Mirek assigns gullible Grand Fenwich citizen Tully Bascom played by Paul Marquis, to lead the tiny country in a war against the United States.

santa's coming

Saturday, November 22, 11:00 a.m.

There's an air of expectancy in the air.

Santa is making his annual journey from the North Pole to greet the children eagerly awaiting him. Arrival time at Tel-Twelve Mall is 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 22.

Wow the Wizard will be on hand with magic tricks and stories to entertain the younger set and will assist Santa in making his appearance.

The Southfield Lathrup High School Band will play favorite holiday songs and will lead a children's march around the Mall.

Youngsters will delight in a ride on the Children's Holiday Train. Their journey will take them through Fantasy Forest where graceful swans, gentle doves and whimsical reindeer reside.

WOW THE WIZARD

Fubar, the cosmic comedian, is returning to Tel-Twelve Mall, November 28-30.

On Sunday, November 23, at 3:00 pm, the holiday festivities continue with the Oakway Symphony, under the direction of Francesco Di Blasi, playing excerpts from Romeo and Juliet by Sergei Prokofiev and Tchaikovsky's Ballet Music to Swan Lake.
